Gen. Otis Reports Recent Deaths at Manila—Two Battalions of the en Route to Manila.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.]
MANILA, July 17, via Hongkong, July 17.—[By Asiatic Cable.] The constantly-increasing strictness of the censorship of press dispatches from Manila, which has prevented the cabling to the United States of any news of importance, and the result of a united effort on the part of the correspondents here to secure an abatement of the rigor of the censorship. The initiative in this direction was taken a month ago, and resulted in the framing of a cable message which was presented Sunday, July 9, to Maj.-Gen. Otis, commanding the military forces of the United States in the Philippines, with a request for permission to telegraph it to the United States. The correspondents also asked for permission to cable their respective papers all the facts and different phases of events as they transpired here.

The correspondents had two long interviews with Gen. Otis, in the course of which they claimed that the evident purpose of the censorship was not to keep information from the enemy, but to keep from the public a knowledge of the real condition of affairs here. It was also asserted by the correspondents that newspapers printed in Manila, which reach the weekly, are permitted to publish statements similar to those which correspondents are forbidden to cable. It was made clear to Gen. Otis that the objection was to the system, and not to the censor.

Gen. Otis finally promised greater liberality, agreeing to pass all matter that he might consider not detrimental to the interest of the United States. Gen. Otis appointed Capt. Green, of his staff, censor. The statement of the correspondents is as follows: "The undersigned, being all staff correspondents of American newspapers stationed in Manila, unite in the following statement:

"We believe that from official dispatches made public in Washington, the people of the United States have not received a correct impression of the situation in the Philippines, but that these dispatches have presented an ultra-optimistic view that is not shared by the general officers in the field. We believe that the dispatches incorrectly represent the existing conditions among the Philippines in respect to discipline and demoralization resulting from the American campaign and to the brigand character of their army.

"We believe the dispatches err in the declaration 'that the situation is, well in hand,' and the assumption that the insurrection can be speedily ended without a greatly-increased force. We think Otis stated, 'that they would alarm the people at home,' or 'have the people of the United States by the ears.'

"Specifications: Prohibition of hostile reports; suppression of full reports of field operations in the event of failure; numbers of heat prostrations in the field; systematic minimization of naval operations, and suppression of complete reports of the situation. [Signed]

GEN. CORBIN'S ANSWER.

All News Which Will Not Aid the Enemy is Disclosed.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]
WASHINGTON, July 17.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Regarding statements made that cable dispatches received in Washington and other news regarding the war had been censored contrary to the usual custom, Adj.-Gen. Corbin said: "The standing instructions of the President and Secretary of War are that the public shall be given all information we receive. This has been and will continue to be done. Of course, plans of campaigns that would be of help to Aguinaldo and other rebels, have not and will not be promulgated, but all facts of events transpiring have been given in full."

FOR CABINET CONSIDERATION.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]
WASHINGTON, July 17.—The Manila dispatch sent from Hongkong by the newspaper men will be taken up by the Cabinet tomorrow. So far as can be learned, nothing has been done or decided on concerning the communication.

Officials are exceptionally reticent on the subject, and it could not even be ascertained whether the newspaper card had been cabled to Gen. Otis, though it is presumed that this has been done, since otherwise he would not learn of it in the ordinary course of things, for some weeks, until American or European mails reach him. It was said tonight by a prominent army officer that Gen. Otis would probably be left free to act on the card as he thought best. Nothing, he added, has been heard from Gen. Otis on the subject.

WASHINGTON COMMENT.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

WASHINGTON, July 17.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Whether any action will be taken on the basis of the allegations contained in the newspaper men's round robin remains to be seen. The subject will probably be talked over at the meeting of the Cabinet tomorrow, but unless those who are close to the President change the views they express today, nothing is likely to result. It is not going too far to say that Gen. Otis has the thorough confidence of the administration. The President and members of the Cabinet believe him to be a man of excellent judgment, whose opinions are of greater value than their own in regard to the military campaign in Luzon, because Gen. Otis is on the ground and is a military man of wide experience. He is, therefore, more competent to judge of the conditions than anybody in this country, or, for that matter, than any newspaper men who are on the ground.

An army officer who expressed the opinion that the round robin should not be overlooked, said that the only course to pursue, other than the recall of Gen. Otis, would be to have the other general officers in the field submit reports on the situation in the islands to the War Department through Gen. Otis.

When the opinion of Adj.-Gen. Corbin was asked in regard to it, he said that any such action would be a great reflection on Gen. Otis. "It would," he added, "show a distrust of Gen. Otis. It would express a doubt as to his representations."

Several army officers who refused to allow their names to be used, expressed the belief that the round robin, if it reaches here from Manila, is a call for reports from officers in the Philippines as to the military situation there. "What the consequence of their allegations against Gen. Otis will be personally for the newspaper men who signed it, has not been considered by the War Department," said that Gen. Otis is supreme in military matters in the Philippines, and has a right to deal with the correspondents as he sees fit. Some of the military officers were very indignant over the action of the newspaper men, while others expressed themselves as thinking that any civilians should undertake to say that they know more about the situation than the general in command, and they are, therefore, not to be treated disrespectfully.

Chief Executive of the Nation Has

Prosecution of the War Assured—The Assertions of Critics

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

CHICAGO, July 17.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Gen. Harrison Gray Otis is at the Palmer House tonight. He came from Washington, where he saw the President and he is on his way to his home in Los Angeles. In answer to the question, "What are your impressions as to how President McKinley feels concerning the situation in the Philippines?" he said:

"He is hopeful, and has confidence in the administration of Maj.-Gen. Otis. He is also very proud of the battle records of the troops in the Philippines, and outspoken in his praise of their achievements."

"Did the President give you any definite indication as to what he would be his future action in the Philippines?"

"Yes; vigorous prosecution of the war. For that purpose he is sending forward troops as fast as possible, sufficient to make the total number available for active field services and for necessary garrison duty in the neighborhood of 45,000 men."

"What do you think of the policy, military and civil, pursued by the commanding general in the islands?"

"His administration has proved itself wise and effective, as could fairly be expected under the difficult circumstances surrounding him. He must have time. It is not an evidence of failure because the rebellion has not been suppressed in a single short campaign."

"Was Gen. Otis over-optimistic as to the conditions in the Philippines? Is he incompetent, as the dispatches say he is?"

"His competency or incompetency is a matter not to be settled by the mere assertions of his critics, but must be determined by his acts, for which I have no doubt, he is willing to stand or fall. I think his military administration thus far will bear the test of examination. Furthermore, his dispatches calling for troops, when rightly interpreted, have never indicated that he considered 40,000 men all told, sufficient to suppress the rebellion. He has undoubtedly contemplated all along a force in addition sufficient to perform the necessary garrison duty in the islands, and such a garrison force would swell the aggregate of his army to at least 45,000 men, which is about the number now contemplated by the government."

"What do you think of the allegations?"

Outgrowth of Assassination of Tom

Doing the Best They Can to Exterminate One Another.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

LOUISVILLE (Ky.), July 17.—A special to the Courier-Journal from London, Ky., tells of a report reaching there of the outbreak of another feud in Clay county, by which five men lost their lives today. The dead are said to be:

ROBERT PHILPOT.
ED FISHER.
AARON MORRIS.
JIM GRIFFIN.
HUGH GRIFFIN.

These fatalities resulted from a pitched battle fought near Little Goose Creek, three miles from Manchester. The feud dates back nearly two years. Christmas day, 1897, James H. Philpott was killed by Aaron Morris, but before he died he shot and killed William Bundy, a friend of Morris. The Morris and Griffins are closely affiliated. Since then the two factions have been very bitter, and the animosity has been aroused recently by the White-Baker hostilities. The Philpots, who are the strongest faction in the mountains, and number about 750 voters, openly espoused the cause of the Bakers, while the Griffins took sides with the Whites. The story that reaches here from Manchester is that Bob Philpott was arrested this morning by Deputy Sheriff Wash Thacker.

While very circumstantial in other respects, the report does not show clearly the origin of the trouble nor give the reason for Philpott's arrest. It is said that while Thacker was taking Philpott's bond, the latter was shot from behind by a member of a crowd that had gathered. This precipitated a general fight with Winchester and revolvers, which was participated in by George, Granville, Robert and Peter Philpott and Ed Fisher on one side and Aaron, Morris and Hugh, Jim and Green Griffin on the other.

The battle began about 9 o'clock, and raged fiercely for ten or fifteen minutes. When it was over it was found that the five men named above had been killed outright. Three of the belligerents were seriously wounded, while Pete Philpott was the only one on either side to escape injury. Granville Philpott is said to be one of the most seriously wounded. He is a Union veteran, having lost a leg at Stone River. He is an ex-member of the Kentucky Legislature, and is said to have killed three or four men.

Ed Fisher, who is reported dead, was another man with several niches in his life. He was but 33 years old, but was said to have killed three men.

The story of this battle caused consternation here, notwithstanding the fact that serious trouble had been expected to break out among the mountaineers of Clay county, ever since the assassination of Tom Baker, several weeks ago. An effort was at once begun to secure deputies to go to the seat of trouble and attempt to restore quiet, but up to a late hour there had not been enough responses to make up a force that would command respect.

The situation at Manchester is deplorable. Since morning, the place has been in a state of terror, scarcely any one daring to venture out of doors. Business is suspended, and the residents are momentarily expecting a renewal of hostilities.

MORE BLOODSHED.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

LONDON DEPOT (Ky.), July 17.—Clay county has another killing for its annals. Dick Loven's body has been found three miles from Manchester. He was beaten to death in the night. When found his head was severed from his body, and had been beaten to a pulp. A 45-caliber revolver was found on the body. Having killed three men and injured several, he was probably killed by the friends of one of his victims. He leaves a widow and eight children.

An attempt has been made to kill Will Gray near Manchester, Clay county. After three shots had passed through his clothes, he escaped by running through a forest. Gray is one of Baker's friends.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

NEW ORLEANS, July 17.—A pair of suspenders saved the life of Charles L. Rockel, runner for the Metropolitan Bank, today. Rockel had just entered the bank to begin his duties, when Englehart Bieber, a discharged soldier of the Second Louisiana Regiment who had been hanging around the bank all morning, slipped up behind him and, taking deliberate aim, fired. The bullet struck the junction of Rockel's suspenders, and carried it into the man's back. When the suspenders were pulled from the wound, the bullet came out with them.

Bieber says that when he went to the war, he gave his deposit book for $500 to Rockel, and that the latter drew out the money and refused to return it to him. Rockel is painfully wounded.

LAW DECLARED INVALID.

Eight-hour Enactment Decided Unconstitutional by Supreme Court.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

DENVER, July 17.—The Supreme Court today unanimously decided that the eight-hour law was unconstitutional. The opinion is not yet written, and will be filed later. The eight-hour law, which was enacted at the late session of the Legislature, applied only to mines, smelters and mills for the reduction of ores. The refusal of the American Smelting and Refining Company to pay the same wages for eight hours had been paid for ten and twelve hours caused its smelters to be closed June 15, when the new law became operative.

This company, which is known as the smelter trust, will now endeavor to reach an agreement with its former employees as to wages and hours of labor, and to reopen its smelters as soon as possible. Officers of the Smeltermen's Union say that the furnace men, who formerly worked twelve hours a day, will work but eight hours in the future.

Posse's Fight.

Folsom, N. M., Train-
Robbers Found.

One Man Killed on Each Side and Three Wounded.

Pitched Battle in a Canyon
Above Cimarron.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.]

LAS VEGAS (N. M.), July 17.—Meager details were received here this morning of a pitched battle between a posse and the gang of outlaws who held up the Colorado and Southern passenger train at Folsom, N. M., a few days ago. The affray occurred near Cimarron, which is situated inland from the telegraph lines. W. J. Farr, a member of the posse, was killed. Farr lived at Walsenburg, Colo. Deputies Love and Smith of Springer, N. M., were probably fatally wounded, and W. H. Reno, chief of the secret service department of the Colorado and Southern Railway, was also wounded. The robbers escaped to the hills. Another posse was organized at Cimarron, and is now in pursuit of the robbers.

Marion Litrell, live-stock inspector, arriving here at 1 o'clock this morning, bringing further details of the fighting at Cimarron, as he had learned them at Springer.

"It occurred this morning," he said, "in a cañon above Cimarron, in a very rough piece of country. The news was telephoned to Springer from Cimarron just before 1 o'clock. The posse was led by Sheriff Ed Farr of Walsenburg and United States Marshal Foraker of New Mexico. The posse numbered six men. The force divided, three members advancing upon the outlaws from opposite directions.

"One of the outlaws was a dead shot. Sheriff Farr was killed, and Henry Love and a man named Smith, members of the posse, were wounded. Love was hit twice, one shot going through his thigh. Foraker returned to Cimarron, and telephoned that all of his posse had been wounded."

The identity of the outlaws is not known, but little doubt is entertained of their being the same individuals who held up the train at Folsom, a few days ago, and also a year or more ago. While Mr. Litrell did not learn the exact location of their camp, it is believed to have been comparatively close to Cimarron, probably two or three miles away. Cimarron is a place of about 200 people, and is situated close to the mouth of the cañon, and twenty-three miles from Springer. The outlaws have been noticed hanging around in the vicinity for some time past. Although nothing certain is known, it is thought by members of the posse that one or more of the outlaws, who were three in number, have been wounded by the officers.

Sheriff Ed Farr, who was killed, is well-known among livestock men. He and his brother have rather extensive cattle interests in Southern Colorado and Northern Mexico.

THE DEAD ROBBER.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

EAST LAS VEGAS (N. M.), July 17.—Word was received here late today that the dead body of one of the train-robbers concerned in the Folsom train robbery on the Colorado Southern Railroad had been conveyed to Cimarron from the scene of the fight, and was afterward taken to Springer, a railroad station, where an inquest was held tonight.

The dead man is known by the name of William McGinnis, alias G. W. Franks, and came from Magdalena, N. M., where he is known as a "bronco-buster." The other two robbers abandoned their horses, and are being pursued in the hills by a posse of twenty men.

CARS ARE CRIPPLED.

BROOKLYN RAILWAY MEN SAY THEY WILL WIN.

President of Rapid Transit Company is Sure of Running Cars on Schedule Time and Says Men are Weakening.

Men Refuse to Return to Work, and Trade on All the Lines is Tied Up Long Before Midnight.

Strike and Lawlessness is Renewed at Cleveland, but Some of the Cars are Running—Chinese Sailors Go Out.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

NEW YORK, July 17.—The strike situation in Brooklyn tonight remains unchanged. The striking employees are even more determined than they were yesterday, and the management of the Rapid Transit lines is obdurate and unflinching.

Cars were run on most of the lines governed by the Traction Company from early morning until 7 o'clock this evening, but after sundown there was considerable falling off in the service, and by 9 o'clock not a car was moving on any of the lines excepted by the striking motormen or conductors. The roads comprising the Nassau line were most effectively crippled. None of the striking employees returned to work, and most of them were busy during the day influencing union and non-union men on the other lines to quit work. In the respect the strikers were partially successful, but they made no inroads on the running of the Putnam-avenue cars. This line is practically intact, not more than half a dozen of its employees being affiliated with the strikers. The Coney Island Railroad Company, which has a rich harvest of its lines during the day, the Franklin-avenue, Smith and Jay streets, Hamilton-avenue and De Kalb-avenue lines were running on full time, and carried a great number of passengers through the day and night.

The Coney Island company lived up to its agreement with the employees, and consequently its business was not interfered with. In fact, the business of these roads was considerably augmented, as many travelers patronized the cars, although, in many cases going block out of their way to do so.

There was a riotous demonstration by the strikers and their sympathizers at Flatbush late this afternoon, when President Rossiter of the Rapid Transit Company addressed a meeting of the men who had gone out on the Flatbush and North Strand avenue lines. Mr. Rossiter drove to the hall in a carriage in company with Seth L. Keeney, a director of the road, and another officer. There was a crowd of more than 500 persons around the hall when he arrived, and he was received with shouts, hisses and jeers.

He was met by a committee of five men, representing the strikers, and they had a conference of twenty minutes before he was permitted to speak. When he finally stepped upon the platform the hall was crowded to suffocation with the strikers and the men who were aiding them.

Mr. Rossiter was introduced by Albert Sweeney, the chairman. The latter said, as he came forward: "This is Mr. Rossiter. Win or lose, let us see if we can't get him to see the sense of his position. He is here to see the men and his desire to aid them, but of his determination not to recognize them, there was a crowd that lasted for fully a quarter of an hour."

After it was over, the president said he had come to the meeting to restore harmony. He declared he would take the men back and not have any action against them. He gave them until 6 o'clock to return, and said if they did not come back to work then they would be discharged.

"We'll never come back," was the reply, in a shout from the house. "Drag him down. Kill him!"

The speaker smiled while the babble reigned and finally he was escorted downstairs and through the mob that shouted for his life. He entered a carriage, with his party, and was driven to the barns around the corner, where the party boarded a car. The crowd made a rush for the car, but was driven away.

Early in the afternoon small-sized boulders and stumps of trees were thrown upon the Flatbush-avenue tracks, in front of the Woodlawn Club, but these obstructions were removed in time to allow the limited number of cars to make their scheduled trips. Considerable difficulty was experienced on the North Strand-street and cross-town lines, but no serious mishap occurred. All the cars were manned by two or more policemen, and the presence of the officers aboard the cars prevented, in a great measure, any outbreak on the part of the strikers or their sympathizers.

At 7 o'clock this evening Mr. Rossiter issued instructions to shut down all the traction company's lines, and with that time until long after midnight not a car was run, with the exception of two which were placed at the service of the city authorities, to take the policemen to outlying districts, and thousands of citizens were compelled to walk home.

Witness Heard Him Threaten to Blow Up Wardner Mill.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.]

WALLACE (Idaho), July 17.—At the Corcoran murder trial today, A. M. St. Clair testified that he heard Corcoran telling miners there would be a meeting of the union the morning of April 28. He saw Corcoran sitting on a box car when the train pulled out, and again when the train came back.

After the meeting that morning, Mike Malvey, a union man, told witness they were going to Wardner to blow up a mill and run the mine out of the country. Frank Culbertson, manager of the Tiger mine, called Corcoran out of the union hall that morning. The defendant said the men were going to Wardner to induce men there not to work.

TIN-PLATE FACTORY RESUMES.
[ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.]

ELWOOD (Ind.) July 17.—The American Tin Plate factory resumed last night, giving employment to 2000 persons, all receiving more wages than under the old scale.

FIREMEN WON'T SIGN.
[ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.]

KANSAS CITY, July 17.—Schwarzschild & Sulzberg's packing plant, closed by the management last week because of a disagreement over wages, did not open as expected at noon. It was announced this morning that the firemen refused to sign the agreement submitted by the company last week.

The management declares that not a wheel shall turn until every employee has signed the agreement.

FREIGHTERS SHUT OUT.
[ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.]

NEW YORK, July 17.—Three hundred and seventy-five freight handlers on the Pennsylvania Railroad Company's piers who struck last evening for higher pay, are practically shut out, as the railroad company yesterday announced there would be no more night work on the piers. The men are formally discharged and the night force is wiped out. There were but seventy of the day force of 350 men at work today.

TROOPS IN IDAHO.
Senators Find the National Administration Was Misrepresented.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

WASHINGTON, July 17.—President McKinley was called upon by Senator Carter of Montana and Senator Heitfeld of Idaho, accompanied by Edward Boyce of Butte, Mont., president of the Western Federation of Miners, and W. R. Goldsmith, secretary of the local miners' union at Wardner, Idaho. The last named gentlemen are a committee representing the miners lately engaged in the strike at Wardner, which resulted in the calling out of troops under Gen. Merriam at the request of the governor of Idaho.

The President, who has been represented in a false light, and added that, in their opinion, the Federal authorities were being used in an illegitimate manner. The President told the committee that the troops had been sent only upon the request of the Governor, and were there for the purpose of preserving peace and for no other purpose.

After the interview, both members of the committee expressed themselves as entirely satisfied with the attitude of the administration, which they had been misrepresented by the local authorities.

TESTIMONY AT WALLACE.
[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

WALLACE, July 17.—"I recognized one of these men; his name is Paul Corcoran," were the words of Mrs. Ida Sinclair, a witness stand today, when referring to the masked men who had shot James Cheyne, and who helped her get him to the hotel. The women had been ordered across the road to a blue tent where they were to arrive from the strike. The crowd was shouting and they heard the men order the prisoners to shoot. Some of the men were ordered to shoot. Finally three men started to run, the crowd shouting at them. Huff and Rogers ran together. He started to run up again. Cheyne ran in a different direction, the crowd shouting at all three.

Continuing, she said: "We walked up to the bluff, and saw Cheyne lying there. We started to go down, when one masked man told me not to make a fool of myself, but stay there. We went down and appealed to the Flatbush late this afternoon, when President Rossiter of the Rapid Transit Company addressed a meeting of the men who had gone out on the Flatbush and North Strand avenue lines. Mr. Rossiter drove to the hall in a carriage in company with Seth L. Keeney, a director of the road, and another officer. There was a crowd of more than 500 persons around the hall when he arrived, and he was received with shouts, hisses and jeers."

CLEVELAND STRIKE RENEWED.
Street-car Employees Say the Company Breaks Its Promise.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.]

CLEVELAND (O.), July 17.—A decision to declare another street-car strike was reached, after a meeting of the men which lasted practically throughout the night. During the early hours of today not a car was running on any of the Big Consolidated lines, fifteen in number. The officials of the company have asked for police protection, and say they will attempt to start cars on one or two lines very soon. Large crowds congregated at all of the barns of the company, but so far as known no violence has been committed. Business Agent Frank of the strikers issued a statement today, in part, as follows:

"It is with grave apprehension that I view the situation as it exists at the present time, and I believe the Big Consolidated Street Railroad Company, with its millions of dollars back of it, on the one side, and the street-car employees, with their backs to a wall of liberty-loving American citizens, with a vast throng of organized labor back of them, on the other side. Three weeks have elapsed, and the company has failed to live up to any part of its agreement, neither has it shown any intention of doing so, except by many promises which have been repeatedly broken."

The Council committee has said that it is no longer a party to that agreement, although the strikers have not changed the same as the rest. Consequently we are brought back to the very starting point, the only difference being that our last condition is worse than the first.

"Who will be responsible for the suffering, riot and disgrace that must inevitably follow another strike of the corporations will put the blame upon the downtrodden laborer, because they have money, and because of their having money, there are city authorities and police who will be sent to surround their necks and say the men are to blame for all this."

The first act of violence of the strike came last night, when a Euclid avenue car turned into St. Clair street from Bank street. Bottles and stones were thrown from sidewalks and windows. Several cars were being mobbed, but no one was injured, motormen speeding their cars by the dangerous area. The rioters had all their own way on Bank and St. Clair streets, not a policeman being in sight.

President Everett of the company had a conference during the day with Mayor Harvey and Police Director Barrett, and the former was told to go ahead and run his cars if he could find men to operate them, and the city would furnish the protection in its power. Mayor Farley is emphatic in declaring that no such rioting as marked the previous strike will be tolerated.

EIGHT-HOUR DAY.
Most Important Demand of the Denver Smelter Employees.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

DENVER (Colo.), July 17.—John R. Wright, president of the Smelter Men's Union, was examined at length today, regarding the conditions prevailing among the smelter works and the causes of the closing of the trust smelters by the members of the United States Industrial Commission, who are holding sessions in this city.

Wright declared that even if the eight-hour law were to be declared to be unconstitutional, the men would still hold out for an eight-hour day. He believed there was no matter so important to laboring men now as the eight-hour work day, regardless of questions of wages and all other considerations. He said he had been in a smelter combination was effected, the men never had any difficulty in dealing with the managers and obtaining any desired result, but when it was found almost impossible to reach those in authority.

Testimony was also heard regarding industrial conditions in the Northern Colorado coal fields.

STRIKES AT CHICAGO.
[ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.]

CHICAGO, July 17.—Sixteen hundred members of the Boiler-makers' and Shipbuilders' Union struck here today. They ask for an eight-hour day, 30 cents an hour and a half-holiday Saturdays during the summer. Two hundred and fifty men employed by the Chicago Furnace Company as one-shovelers also struck today for more pay.

CHINESE SAILORS STRIKE.
Members of the Tartar Crew, However, Withdraw Their Demands.

[A. P. EARLY MORNING REPORT.]

SAN FRANCISCO, July 17.—Sixty-seven members of the Chinese crew of the transport Tartar have been on strike for several days, having demanded double pay for the voyage from Manila. The vessel was acquired by the government from the Canadian Pacific Railway Company, and the action of the men renders them liable to six months' imprisonment when the vessel reaches a British port.

Through the intervention of the Chinese Consul-General here and the British Consul, the matter has been adjourned. When the business of their offense had been impressed upon the mutineers they gave in, rescinded their demands and in return they received assurance that they would not be prosecuted.

A COAST TIE-UP.
Deckhands on Three Sacramento River Steamers Quit Work.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.]

SACRAMENTO, July 17.—The deck hands on the up-river steamers Red Bluff, Jacinto and Varuna, belonging to the Sacramento River Navigation Company, struck last night for higher wages. They had been receiving $30 a month and board, and now want $40 a month. They claim that their hours of labor are too long. As a result of the strike, the steamers are laid up. The company agent here says he will be able to secure the men to take the places of the strikers. The strikers thus far have been quiet and orderly, and their moving were paid off. The steamer Dover is expected to arrive from up-river today, and it is believed that the strikers will attempt to induce the deck hands of that vessel to join their strike.

There is also trouble on the Southern Pacific steamer Apache, which is moored to a wharf below this city, on account of the low water. The deck hands would have quit last night, but were induced to remain over until this morning. The men have already left, and the outcome is a matter of conjecture. The men have not made a demand for any definite increase in wages, but the principal cause of complaint being that they are overworked. The Apache will be able to leave for San Francisco with the men who remain on board.

TWO OTHER BOATS.
[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

SACRAMENTO, July 17.—Besides the steamers tied up when the strike was declared, two others of the company's boats, the Dover and the San Joaquin No. 2, arrived, and their hands joined the strikers. It was rumored late in the afternoon that an attempt would be made to take the Jacinto up the river, but the crew from Stockton, but if such was the intention it was reconsidered.

A barge belonging to the company and loaded with sacks of grain stuck in the middle of the river, and a cent a sack to transfer them to another barge found no takers.

The difference between the men on the steamer Apache and its owners has, it is said, been adjusted, and the crew returned to work. Theirs was not a demand for more wages, but for shorter hours.

The striking deck hands are having a glorious time. The water front is lined with drunken men and individuals, and free fights are of common occurrence. As yet nobody has been seriously injured. Whether the strikers will gain their point, or whether they will return to work on the old schedule can only be surmised. The Queen of Yukon, a down-the-river boat, is here, and is doing a big business.

SINKS AMID FLAMES.
Oil Ship Maverick Goes Down on Fire at Halfax.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

HALIFAX, July 17.—The Standard Oil Company's tank steamer Maverick, which arrived Sunday from New York with a cargo of oil, is sunk in the harbor.

While at her pier this morning a six-inch pipe, forming a part of the oil-pumping equipment, burst, and the oil flowed down the engine-room, and then into the hold. The steamer's crew were obliged to leave the ship to save their lives. In a short time sheets of flame were rising all over her. The city department of fire, which was called, rapidly filled with water and sank. She now lies submerged, only her masts being visible.

Most of the cargo remained in the vessel at the time she went down, and thousands of people have been attracted to the scene. She was not insured. The vessel was valued at $250,000 and her cargo at $200,000. About two hundred thousand gallons of oil had been pumped out and there were still gallons in the ship. The basin in which fire occurred is still a sea of flame.

Michael Michaelson, an oiler, was terribly burned about the head and may die. He was the only man on the ship who was not injured. The break in the pipe was between decks. Fifteen minutes afterward the explosion took place.

Germania State Bank Closed.
ST. PAUL, July 17.—The Germania State Bank, capitalized at $200,000, was closed today by State Examiner Pope at the request of its directors. After sustaining a heavy run two and a half years ago the bank was closed in January, 1897. However, with new capital, the institution was reorganized, and has been doing the business for two years. The closing of the bank was a surprise, and no reason as yet has been assigned. The last statement showed deposits, $240,000; on hand, $61,000; total assets, $321,406.23.

CALLS THEM OBSCURE.

CHICAGO'S MAYOR REFUSES TO ADDRESS DEMOCRATS.

He Says It Would Be Abundant to Welcome Visitors Under Auspices of a Self-Constituted Committee Whose Personnel is Too Hidden to Be Known Even at Home.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

CHICAGO, July 17.—Mayor Carter H. Harrison today sent the following letter to the committee in charge of arrangements for the Democratic meeting at the Auditorium, July 20:

"To W. F. Colling, Esq., chairman Committee of Arrangements—Dear Sir: Replying to your favor of the 14th inst., in which you ask me to deliver an address of welcome at the Auditorium, July 20, to the National Democratic Committee and a large number of Democrats of America, I regret my inability to accept. Under ordinary circumstances I should be only too glad, both as Mayor of Chicago and as a Democrat, to welcome the National Committee or any number of Democrats to Chicago, the city in which the platform of 1896 was framed, and in which W. J. Bryan was elevated to his present leadership of the national Democracy. I cannot but sympathize with the distinguished men, under the auspices of a self-constituted committee, whose personnel is too obscure to be known even in our home city."

"Had this meeting been organized under the direction of Democrats of the regular type and known standing, it would have accorded me great pleasure to be present. Under the existing circumstances, while thanking you for the honor, I must beg leave to be excused."

"Yours respectfully, (Signed) CARTER H. HARRISON."

When word of Mayor Harrison's letter was shown ex-Gov. Altgeld, the latter said: "I am sorry the Mayor looked at it that way. He has made a grave mistake, on account of its opportunity. Should he come to the meeting and make a rousing Democratic speech, he would place himself in the front rank of the party of the State, but he has lost the chance now. I am sorry for it."

DEMOCRATS ARE DIVIDED.
Three Political Developments Stir the Chicago Contingent.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

CHICAGO, July 17.—Three political developments stirred the Democrats in Chicago today. One was the refusal of Mayor Harrison, on account of its "obscure" origin, to deliver an address of welcome at the Auditorium free-silver meeting Thursday night. The second was a verbal notice that the Democratic National Committee would be asked to repudiate the Croker-Hill-Murphy machine in New York, and recognize the silver crowd. The third was the statement that an effort would be made to have a rule adopted that no man who bolted the Chicago platform and ticket in 1896 shall be eligible to sit in the national convention of 1900 as a delegate.

At the city office in the City Hall, Mayor Harrison found W. D. Cooling's invitation to make a speech of welcome to the assembled local and visiting Democrats. Thursday night. He declined the proffered honor, and his reasons for doing so are set forth in his letter. Efforts are being made by the Harrison leaders to induce as many of the national committeemen as possible to ignore the meeting. It was said that fully one-half of them would not go. They are being informed of the purpose to influence them into doing something which does not properly come within the scope of the party's function.

The Altgeld forces have been reinforced by the Chicago platform Democrats of New York. Willis J. Abbott, who was first invited to accept, reported at headquarters in the Unity Building in the afternoon. He comes as one of a committee of the silver party in New York to report before the national body and get a hearing as to what the situation is in that State. John R. Brown, who was toastmaster of the "Dollar Dinner" and George W. Loring, of the "Cook's Tours," 20 South Spring St., are also members of the delegation. They will arrive tomorrow. Mr. Abbott said that a great majority of the rank and file of the party in New York is in favor of the 16-to-1 issue, and of W. J. Bryan for President.

"Croker, Hill and Murphy, the leaders of the 'gold' party, are not silver and Bryan, but they do not represent the sentiment of a majority of the voters."

The three spokesmen will demand that this claim in the majority be given recognition by the national committee, so that it may have some excuse for sending a delegation to the national convention next year.

DEMOCRATIC DOCTRINE.
Secretary Walsh Returns from Dawson to Attend Committee Meeting.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.]

CHICAGO, July 17.—A special to the Chronicle from Tacoma, Wash., says that C. A. Walsh of Ottumwa, Iowa, secretary of the Democratic National Committee, arrived from Dawson today and left immediately for Chicago. He came out on purpose to attend this week's meeting of the committee at Chicago.

In an interview at Skagway, Walsh announced himself as opposed to trusts and expansion. Of next year's campaign Walsh said that the validity of the law establishing the new county of McKinley's administration, respecting the war and the Philippine question.

GORMAN WON'T BE THERE.
[ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.]

BALTIMORE (Md.), July 17.—Former United States Senator Gorman will not be able to attend the Democratic National Committee which will take place in Chicago Thursday next, but will be represented in the meeting by Col. L. V. Vaughan, who holds Gorman's proxy.

LOYAL COLORED MEN.
Three Officials Assure the President of Their Race's Support.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.]

WASHINGTON, July 17.—Mr. Lyons, Register of the Treasury, ex-Representative Cheatham, Recorder of Deeds, and John P. Green, United States Stamp Agent, three of the leading colored men of the administration, made a consultation with the President today, regarding matters of interest to their race. The efforts of certain colored men to array the colored race against the administration on account of its Philippine policy was mentioned, and Mr. Lyons assured the President that, in his opinion, it would amount to little.

New Colorado County Sustained.
DENVER, July 17.—The Supreme Court today affirmed the validity of the law establishing the new county of Teller, which embraces the Cripple Creek district. The county is formed of portions of the Teller and Fremont counties by the last Legislature, and citizens of the latter county resisted the action on the ground that it was contrary to the constitution of the State.

London Speculation Dead.
NEW YORK, July 17.—The Commercial Advertiser's London financial telegram says: "Speculation was apparently dead in the markets here today, pending Transvaal developments. The tone was firm. Americans hardened slightly on New York support, but relaxed later, closing heavy at the worst."

THEIR SECRET KNOWN

BLANCHE BATES AND MANAGER FRAWLEY ARE MARRIED.

The latter is greatly wrought up over the disclosure which was made by Harry Corson Clarke, the comedian.

Both principals deny the soft impeachment, but their friends knew there was something strong between them.

Disastrous Fire at Ukiah—Bonds of Quasi-Foreign Corporations Taxable—California Fruit Canners' Board of Equalization.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

SAN FRANCISCO, July 17.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Miss Blanche Bates, the actress, should be known in private life as Mrs. T. Daniel Frawley, at least that is what Harry Corson Clarke has said, and he ought to know, for he has not been a member of the Frawley company longer than any other?

Of course the principals both deny the soft impeachment for the same reasons that Daniel Frawley will not have man and wife appear together in any of his companies. It is said to detract from their drawing capacity, for the theater-going public some how loses interest in an actor or actress when he or she departs from single blessedness.

The dashing Miss Bates is said to have assumed the matrimonial yoke in Washington, seven months ago, when the company was playing there. The report of their marriage was circulated at the time and denied for the same reasons that make it so desirable to conceal the fact now.

Manager Frawley, when seen at the California Theater tonight, became greatly wrought up over the fact that Mr. Clarke should have betrayed his cherished secret, and threatened all sorts of dire vengeance on the popular comedian who, he said, was getting even for being let out of the company. He would not allow Miss Bates to be interviewed, as he preferred to assume the responsibility of the denial himself, having less compunctions of conscience. He based his refusal on the fact that it might upset her for the trying part she appears in, saying she was under great nervous tension.

Miss Bates is credited with being a woman of more than ordinary business acumen, and it is not believed she would have left New York when she had already begun to climb the ladder of fame to sink her chances with the Frawley combination if there were not some stronger obligation to do so than that of gratitude to the man with whom she first won success. Their friends say the public have long since made up their minds that there was something stronger than friendship between Manager Frawley and his beautiful leading lady, and it only wanted Harry Corson Clarke's statement to remove all doubt.

FRUIT-CANNERS' ASSOCIATION.

Last Officer Has Been Taken Up and Officers Elected.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

SAN FRANCISCO, July 17.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The California Fruit Canners' Association is now formally and legally organized. This was accomplished today when the last officer was taken up and the following officers elected: William Thomas, president; Sidney M. Smith, first vice-president and treasurer; Sanford L. Goldstein, second vice-president; Robert I. Bentley, third vice-president; Isaac H. Moore, secretary; M. J. Fontana, general superintendent. Sidney M. Smith, S. L. Goldstein, M. J. Fontana, R. I. Bentley and James Nelson comprise the Executive Committee.

The new corporation has, since the first of July, been responsible for the debts and running expenses of canners. This attitude had to ante-date the final organization in order that the output of this year could be handled. The conduct of business will continue on the same lines for the present, as the policy of the corporation has not yet been outlined.

It has taken months of appraisement and investigation to determine exactly what packing firms would compose the corporation. Many would have entered the combine if they could have been accepted. After the wedding out and searching of titles, the following have agreed to all terms, and are parts of the big business which will control most of the canning business of the State: Fontana & Co., Cutting Fruit Packing Company, San José Fruit Packing Company, Sacramento Packing Company, Santa Clara Packing Company, King Morse Company, Rose City Packing Company, Oakland Preserving Company, California Fruit Preserving Company, Marysville Packing Company, A. F. Tenney Company and the Courtland Packing Company, which handles asparagus and peas. This includes twenty-two plants.

FIRST LEGAL CONTROVERSY.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.)

SAN FRANCISCO, July 17.—The first legal controversy in which the new association has been involved developed today through a suit brought by Charles W. Pike, of the Cannery, the Hunt Bros. Fruit Packing Company. The latter company owns the Rose City cannery, and the plaintiffs have sued to recover $7533 alleged to be due on commission and money advanced. The shares of stock in the California Fruit Canners' Association held by the Hunt Bros. Fruit Packing Company have been garnished by the plaintiffs.

ASSESSMENTS OF BONDS.

Securities of Quasi-Foreign Public Corporations are Taxable.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.)

WOODLAND, July 17.—District Attorney Bush of this county has rendered an opinion to the County Supervisors, sitting as a board of equalization in the matter of taxation of the bonds of the quasi-foreign public corporations, in which he holds that such bonds are subject to taxation in the county in which the owner thereof resides.

The issue arose during the present session of the County Board of Equalization, when the Bank of Woodland was cited to appear and show cause why they should not be assessed for some $100,000 in bonds in New York City.

Their contentions were that said bonds were never in this State, and that the principal and interest thereof were payable in New York. District Attorney Bush has based his opinion on the law governing the taxation of personal property, stating that such property is taxed where the owner thereof resides, regardless of the location of the property.

EQUALIZERS MEET.

State Board Will Assess Railroads and Arrange Values.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.)

SACRAMENTO, July 17.—The State Board of Equalization began its regular annual session today, for the purpose of assessing railroads and equalizing values between the counties. The first two weeks will be devoted to assessing railroads, and the time of the board, from then on to the end of the session, will be occupied with county valuations.

At today's session the Board of Supervisors of Yolo county was granted an extension of time, as a county board of equalization, until the 20th of the present month. Mono County Supervisors were granted one week. Nevada County Supervisors were granted ten days, and the Supervisors of Los Angeles county were granted five days. The Assessor of Tuolumne county was granted until the 31st of the month to collect personal property tax.

Tomorrow has been set for hearing the argument of the Nevada, California and Oregon Railroads. But it is not thought the representatives of the road will appear, as they never have in the past. The following roads will be heard on July 18: Nevada Northern Railroad, California and Nevada Railroad, Gualala River Railroad; July 26, secretary of California; Alameda and San Joaquin Railroad, Sierra Valley Railroad; July 27, North Pacific Coast Railroad; July 28, Nevada county Narrow Gauge; August 1, Placer Valley Railroad, Pacific Coast Railroad; August 2, San Francisco and San Joaquin Valley Railroad; August 3, Santa Fe Railroad, San Francisco and North Pacific Railroad, and August 4, Southern Pacific Railroad and Fullman Car Company.

EXCITEMENT IS INTENSE.

Littlefield Lynching Recalled by a Retraction of Evidence.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.)

COVLETO, July 17.—The excitement incident to the Littlefield lynching is in a great measure revived by the retraction of evidence of a forced retraction of the evidence of Frank Doolittle, one of the principal witnesses in the cases against the men serving a term in San Quentin for participating in the leader of the forcing party is said to have been Brophy, a well-known man and a cousin of Joseph Gregory, one of the convicted lynchers.

Doolittle made good his escape while the conspirators were in earnest consultation, by severing the cord which bound his hands with a hatchet, which he held between his teeth. The retraction in an alleged confession in which Doolittle declares Gregory an innocent man, and that harrowed by remorse, he could surely commit suicide. He enjoys his family not to search for his body, as he would dispatch himself in such a place that none would be able to find him. It is rumored tonight that Sheriff Bergen is in the Red Mountain country, in search of Brophy and his band. News of their arrest is hourly expected. This occurred Friday afternoon north of Red Mountain, eastern Trinity county, in the vicinity of May River, and about twenty miles from Covelo. It is feared that the bitter feud engendered by the Littlefield lynching may again be fanned into a flame.

ENTERTAINING THE N.E.A.

Typical Mexican Fiesta Arranged at Tia Juana.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.)

SAN DIEGO, July 17.—About 2000 visitors, mostly people who were in Los Angeles during the sessions of the N.E.A., are in this city. Several hundred came Saturday, and there were heavy arrivals yesterday, and a large number came today. At the suggestion and with the aid of the Chamber of Commerce, a typical Mexican fiesta in honor of the visitors has been arranged at Tia Juana, just across the line in Lower California.

The fiesta will continue at Tia Juana tomorrow and Wednesday.

DR. PIERCE'S FAVORITE PRESCRIPTION

Makes Weak Women Strong, And Sick Women Well.

For over thirty years this celebrated remedy has been making women's lives happier—healthier—safer. Many thousands of women have testified to its wonderful effect. It is the only medicine that can be depended upon when there is any derangement of the distinctly feminine organism. It purifies, heals, soothes, builds up. It is needed when backaches make life miserable—when a sickening, dragging, bearing-down feeling makes work a weary agony and play impossible—when disagreeable drains give proof of burning inflammation—when sick headache, nervous irritability, loss of energy and appetite are the reminder of unhealthy irregularity of painful menstruation.

"I had female trouble for eight years," writes Mrs. L. J. Dennis, of 828 East College Street, Jacksonville, Fla. "I was so bad I would lie from day to day and long for death to come and relieve my suffering. I had internal inflammation, bearing-down pains, and such distress every month, but now I never have a pain and all my own work and a strong and healthy woman. Thank you for your medicine. I forget to recommend it to all suffering women. I consider myself a living testimonial of the benefits of your 'Favorite Prescription.'"

(PEACE.) THE HAGUE PROTOCOLS.

AMERICAN DELEGATES TO GET ORDERS TO SIGN.

Secretary Hay Will Not Wait on the Mails, but Will Use the Cable.

Arbitration Committee Holds a Plenary Meeting.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.)

WASHINGTON, July 17.—Secretary Hay has received all the protocols of the proceedings of the Hague Conference. Included among the papers is the draft of the arbitration and mediation treaty, which is regarded as the most important achievement of the conference. The document is in French, and the translations are now being made at the State Department.

As there is occasion for the utmost haste in completing the work of the conference, our government has concluded not to depend on the mails to communicate its approval of the work, but will by cable empower its delegates to sign the protocols in the name of the United States. The treaty will, of course, require to be submitted to the Senate for approval.

COMMITTEE REPORT ATTACKED.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.)

THE HAGUE, July 17.—The first committee of the International Peace Conference met this morning to discuss Van Kervebeck's report on the first four points of M. Muraviev's circular.

It appears now that the first committee of the conference has recommended to the subcommittee that a clause should be appended to the declaration of St. Petersburg of 1864, prohibiting the firing of explosives from warships, and the use of asphyxiating bombs and explosive bullets. Many delegates seemingly had left the room, not knowing the question at issue.

ANOTHER AMERICAN TRIUMPH.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.)

THE HAGUE, July 17.—The third committee, or Arbitration Committee, held a plenary meeting, discussing international commissions of inquiry, and adopting, with certain amendments, article 56, respecting the expenses of the tribunal.

The section of article 54 providing for the revision of arbitrary awards, which the Americans had succeeded in adding to the original project, was the subject of a long debate on the motion of M. de Martens, Russian delegate, to eliminate the amendment. Messrs. Hollis and Low of the American delegation made long speeches in defense of the revision.

Mr. Hollis, whose remarks were rapidly translated into French by M. Desfontaines, declared that the Americans would be anxious to agree to the arbitration scheme if revisions were stricken out, unless they received further instructions from Washington. This announcement created a sensation.

Prof. Asser of the Dutch delegation presented a fresh draft proposal, which was vigorously supported. Mr. Hollis accepted an amendment providing that the disputing parties can reserve the right of revision by special agreement. Thus the Americans practically won their point.

CANALS ARE DEEPENED.

Work on St. Lawrence Channels is Nearly Completed.

(A. P. EARLY MORNING REPORT.)

MONTREAL, July 17.—The work of deepening the St. Lawrence channels, which has been going on for many years, is now about completed, and it is announced that by September, at the latest, there will be a channel fourteen feet in depth from Lake Ontario to Montreal. Heretofore some of the canals were only nine feet deep, and for this reason the lake freight steamers have had to transship at Kingston. With the deeper channel they will be able to come through direct from Port Colborne, on Lake Erie, the head of the Welland Canal, to Montreal. The transshipment of goods to and from the lake freighters will be able to enter the harbor and discharge their cargo as easily as they can now at Buffalo. At Montreal, it is said, the government has decided to erect an immense grain elevator. As the reward for the canal outlay, running high up into the millions, Canada expects to deflect a large amount of grain from the Erie canal.

During the afternoon, there were a number of contests with a view to the selection of the final team for the 100-yard dash. Quinn of Harvard, Dupee of Yale, Blount of Yale and Roche of Harvard finished in the order named; time 0:10.5. Quinn and Dupee were selected to run in the dash July 22. LONG RACE ENDED.

Three Vessels Run from Hawaiian Islands to Philadelphia.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.) PHILADELPHIA, July 17.—A race of 15,000 miles for a prize of $1000 terminated at the Delaware Breakwater yesterday, on the arrival of the ships I. C. Chapman, the Babcock, and the bark St. Catherine, from the Hawaiian Islands. All three are American-built and American-owned vessels and are commanded by American skippers. It was while the vessels were taking cargoes of sugar that their masters arranged the race. Allowance was made for the difference in time of the departure of the vessels, but notwithstanding over two weeks elapsed between the dispatch of the first vessel, the Babcock, and the last, the St. Catherine, all three vessels arrived within a few hours of each other, with the St. Catherine a winner.

The Babcock, Capt. Colley, left Honolulu, March 8. The Chapman followed from the same port a week later, and the St. Catherine squared her sails from Hilo, a port several miles from Honolulu, March 22. It was after Cape Horn had been rounded that the St. Catherine came up to her competitors, the Chapman having caught the Babcock while both were in the Pacific. With the three vessels close together, the race began in earnest, the St. Catherine steadily holding the lead. After being becalmed for a week near the equator the race once more began, the staunch bark still showing the way until the Delaware capers reached, and the rattle of her anchor hains brought the contest to an end. The others came in a few hours later and cast anchor about the same time. The Chapman is commanded by Capt. Thompson and the bark by Capt. Matthews.

Andrews, who set out from Atlantic City, N. J., June 18, to cross the ocean in a dory twelve feet in length, reports that when off the banks of Newfoundland, the watch noticed Andrews's boat. The sea was rough and some difficulty was experienced in getting Andrews aboard.

He had evidently undergone much privation and suffering. He was semi-delirious, and replied to questions incoherently. He has partially recovered.

When the play closed for the day the Australians had scored one run for one wicket down.

COLUMBIA'S NEW MAST.

Steel Spar Will Weigh Much Less Than One of Pine.

(A. P. EARLY MORNING REPORT.) BRISTOL (R. I.), July 17.—Capt. Rhodes of the Columbia received orders Saturday to sail for Newport as soon as possible. He will not delay his departure beyond Tuesday. The new topmast of Washington pine, which was sent up last Thursday is slightly taller than the old spar, and the better fitting sails are expected to make their influence felt in the coming races off Newport.

The Columbia's new 107-foot steel mast cannot be completed before Tuesday, and may not be ready in time for the first Newport contest. It is taller, thicker and stronger than the old one, and the steel cylinder which has withstood the most severe strains, and weighs 1600 pounds less than the big pine spar it will supplant. When the mast is stepped, Columbia is not expected to heel so much in stiff breeze, as the present vessel above the deck line will be materially decreased.

RECIPROCITY TREATIES.

Period of Negotiation Terminating.

The French Affairs.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.) WASHINGTON, July 17.—The present week closes the period of two years prescribed by the Dingley tariff law within which reciprocity treaties may be negotiated, and as a result there is much activity in those foreign quarters having reciprocity negotiations pending.

The most important negotiation is that of the Franco-American treaty. These negotiations reached a rather critical stage last week, as neither side was quite satisfied with what had been given. But today, the prospects have been brightened materially, and it is said in high official quarters that there is every prospect of a final and satisfactory conclusion of the negotiations. Three treaties with Great Britain relating to the West Indian colonies of Jamaica, Bermuda and Guiana also remain to be signed.

MUMM VON SCHWARTZENSTEIN.

German Ambassador Is Presented to the Chief Executive.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.) WASHINGTON, July 17.—The German Ambassador, Baron von Holleben, today presented to the President Herr Mumm von Schwarzenstein, who has just arrived from Germany and who is to act as ad-interim Ambassador during the temporary absence of the Ambassador in Germany. The presentation took place in the Red Room.

Herr von Schwarzenstein is one of the under secretaries of the Foreign Office. It was he who negotiated the reciprocity treaty with the United States under the McKinley tariff law, and this fact has led to the belief that his mission here is to reopen the reciprocity negotiations under the Dingley law, which have been suspended for months, owing to the friction caused by the exclusion of American meats from the German markets. The period during which these reciprocity treaties may be negotiated under the Dingley law expires July 24, and the time for the consummation of an agreement has therefore very brief.

Baron von Holleben leaves tonight for New York, whence he sails for Germany. He will be absent several months.

Warned of Filibusters.

JACKSONVILLE (Fla.), July 17.—The United States District Attorney here has been warned from Washington to beware of filibustering expeditions from the Florida coast to Honduras, Nicaragua and other Central American countries.

(IN THE GOLD FIELDS.) DUST FROM KLONDIKE

SUMMER OUTPUT ESTIMATED AT EIGHTEEN MILLIONS.

Assistant Secretary of the Treasury Vandalip Thinks the Government Assay Office at Seattle Will Get Considerable.

Steamers Roanoke and Garonne are Reported to Have Six Millions of the Yellow Stuff or Its Equivalent Aboard.

The Laurada Brings Between Three and Four Hundred Passengers. Stories from Cape Nome—Bostonsians' Ill-luck.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.) WASHINGTON, July 17.—Frank A. Vandalip, assistant Secretary of the Treasury, returned today from a month's trip through the West on business connected with the government mints and assay offices. He says that what appears to be a conservative estimate of the amount of gold which will come out of the Klondike this summer is $18,000,000, a large proportion of which, he added, will go through the government assay office at Seattle.

ROANOKE'S RICHNESS.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.) SEATTLE (Wash.), July 17.—The North American Trading and Transportation Company's steamer Roanoke arrived here tonight from St. Michael, with between 500 and 600 passengers and $2,000,000 or $3,000,000 worth of gold dust. The lowest estimate is $1,750,000, and the highest $3,500,000. This latter estimate is that of Purser Newcomb, in whose custody a large part of the treasure was. He included in his figures the amount in the possession of individual passengers.

The most of the gold was shipped by the Canadian Bank of Commerce, the Bank of British North America, and the North American Trading and Transportation Company. The largest individual amount was said to belong to the Baker brothers, who are credited with $500,000 worth.

GOLD IN ABUNDANCE.

Roanoke and Garonne Bring Six Millions from St. Michael.

(A. P. EARLY MORNING REPORT.) VICTORIA (B. C.), July 17.—The manager of the Dawson branch of a Victoria firm, writing from Dawson, says:

"From reliable sources we have learned that the steamships Roanoke and Garonne will take from St. Michael to Seattle and San Francisco $6,000,000 or a little more. The Canadian Bank of Commerce shipped $1,500,000 to each place, the Alaskan Commercial Company a little over $500,000, and the North American Trading Company $500,000."

"We are informed by the Bank of Commerce managers that they had in sight here at one time in the spring $4,000,000. They claim the total output this year will be not less than $18,000,000, and will probably reach $20,000,000. The Roanoke is reported to have entered the Sound last night."

STEAMER LAURADA.

Diverse Reports as to How Much Gold Her Passengers Have.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.) SEATTLE, July 17.—The steamer Laurada arrived today from St. Michael with between 300 and 400 passengers. Among them were fifteen discharged soldiers from Rampart City. No big amounts of gold dust were carried on the steamer. Some claim there is about $500,000 scattered among the passengers, while others say most of them return empty-handed.

The third officer of the steamer, George, fell overboard this morning. His leg was cut off by the propeller blade.

CAPE NOME STORIES.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.) SEATTLE, July 17.—The news brought from Cape Nome is varied and conflicting. One or two men give glowing accounts, while many of the miners from Dawson, who had spent two or three weeks at St. Michael, say they are convinced the reports of rich finds are exaggerated. Some go so far as to pronounce it a transportation fad.

S. G. Simpson of this city says he learned at St. Michael that the miners of the Cape Nome country were washing out as high as $500 a day.

A. E. McRae of Colorado said: "It is my opinion that Cape Nome is a fake."

James Nolan of Winona, Minn., says: "A friend of mine who is thoroughly reliable, tells me there is absolutely no gold being taken out, and no work is being done on claims."

St. Michael is at present a harbor for hundreds of poor unfortunates who have drifted down the Yukon River with nothing with which to live on.

James E. Kelley, a passenger on the Laurada, estimates that there are from two hundred to three hundred strange prospectors who do not know where their next meal is coming from. The government station is besieged for aid, and the steamship companies can obtain any number of men for any kind of work, but are unwilling to go into the hold in order to work their passage down. This state of affairs is likely to continue all summer.

A general average of the estimates of the amount of gold dust on the Laurada is $250,000.

DISAPPOINTED GOLD-SEEKERS.

Fourteen Bostonsians Lose Their Ship and Get Scoury.

(A. P. EARLY MORNING REPORT.) SEATTLE, July 17.—The schooner Geu Sieglin, which arrived here last night from Cook Inlet, Alaska, had among her passengers fourteen members of a party of sixteen Massachusetts men, who left Boston a year ago last February. In the schooner Rube Richardson. They went to Resurrection Bay, Alaska, where they anchored their vessel for the winter. In November she broke her chains, and a strong wind drove her at high tide on a sand bank. The craft careened and settled, until within three or four weeks she was practically buried in the sand.

Meanwhile the prospecting contingent had gone into Copper River, a tributary of Resurrection Bay, where they located a claim, and at once began its development. Very poor diggings were encountered, the men making only 50 cents to $1 per day. But they kept pegging away until they secured enough gold to pay their passage back home. Before their departure they sold the buried schooner, which is a comparatively new craft, constructed at a cost of $10,000, to Capt. Newport for $100.

OPEN LETTERS FROM

Jennie E. Green and Mrs. Harry Hardy.

JENNIE E. GREEN, Denmark, Iowa, writes to Mrs. Pinkham:

"I had been sick at my monthly periods for seven years, and tried almost everything I ever heard of, but without any benefit. Was troubled with backache, headache, pains in the shoulders and dizziness. Through my mother I was induced to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and it has done me so much good. I am now sound and well."

Mrs. HARRY HARDY, Riverside, Iowa, writes to Mrs. Pinkham the story of her struggle with serious ovarian trouble, and the benefit she received from the use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. This is her letter:

"How thankful I am that I took your medicine. I was troubled for two years with inflammation of the womb and ovaries, womb was also very low. I was in constant misery. I had heart trouble, was short of breath and could not walk five blocks to save my life. Suffered very much with my back, had headache all the time, was nervous, menstruations were irregular and painful, had a bad discharge and was troubled with bloating. I was a perfect wreck. Had doctored and taken local treatments, but still was no better. I was advised by one of my neighbors to write to you. I have now finished the second bottle of Mrs. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and am better in every way. I am able to do all my own work and can walk nearly a mile without fatigue; something I had not been able to do for over two years. Your medicine has done me more good than all the doctors."

Sieglin are: E. C. Collins, L. P. Grover, C. E. Chapman, J. Murphy, John Edie, Martin Noonan, Charles R. Baker, O. Lake, C. Herring, R. C. Wilcox, S. Ericson, W. A. Miller, D. A. Nyeholm and T. C. Case.

Nearly every member of the crowd had a slight touch of the scurvy during the winter. They are returning to their Massachusetts homes very much disgusted with the Resurrection section of Alaska as a gold-producing district. No better opinions are entertained of Cook Inlet by A. H. Wood, T. Kendall and James Taylor, three Maine men, and George Hadden of Indiana; Harry Kent of Massachusetts; John Forbes of New York, and G. S. Strupp of Hop Bottom, Pa., who are leaving the country dissatisfied.

BROUGHT BY CUTCH.

(A. P. EARLY MORNING REPORT.) VANCOUVER (B. C.), July 17.—The steamer Cutch arrived here last night from Skaguay with Yukon miners aboard. Purser Turner reports $200,000 gold dust deposited in the ship's safe. Hugh Lancaster of Liverpool, Eng., returned with $120,000 in drafts. He went into the Yukon eighteen months ago, and is now returning home.

North Atlantic comes news of the amicable settlement of past troubles. Judge Irving's dealings out of justice in Atlin are giving the utmost satisfaction to Americans who stake claims prior to passing of the alien law are now allowed full privileges.

DEATH, NOT GOLD.

Kotzebue Sound Is Said to Be Barren—Scurvy, Disease and Disaster.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.) HEALY (St. Michael Island) July 4, via Seattle, July 17.—A country fully as barren of gold as the Koyukuk, is Kotzebue Sound. During the past year and a half thousands of prospectors have turned their attention to this section of Alaska and have fully prospected the Kotzebue and other streams which were supposed to carry gold in large quantities, but which, upon trial, have proven to be without wealth.

W. P. Stanley, who has just reached here, says that during his stay in Kotzebue several people died of scurvy; five men, four of whom were of the names of Howard, Graham, Miller and Marsh, were drowned in the inlet while crossing in a small boat; a man of the name of Oondout, whose brother is a well-known contractor of Chicago, died of throat trouble. Three men, whose names Stanley could not remember, froze to death, one fell from a cliff and another accidentally shot himself.

Ill-treated His Friend.

Antonio Cerro, an Italian who lives at No. 778 East Fifteenth street, unburdened himself of a tale of woe at the Police Station yesterday. He said that Sunday he had loaned his wagon, containing $3 worth of ice cream, to Louis Sertini, a countryman. The latter was to sell the ice cream and return, when the profits would be divided. He saw no more of his friend Sertini, but late Sunday afternoon found his horse and wagon at the corner of Fifteenth and San Pedro streets, where the rig had been left by the latter, who, according to Cerro, had sold all the ice cream and skipped with the proceeds.

PEN vs. SWORD.

tions of the newspaper correspondents in the Philippines that the commanding general, through his censor, aimed to keep the country in the dark concerning the facts, and that he has shown jealousy of Gen. Lawton.

"Before just judgment upon the allegations to which you refer can be made up, Maj.-Gen. Otis himself must be heard from. I know nothing myself relative to the allegations and saw nothing of that sort during my service in Luzon."

"After talking with the President, what do you think of Bryan's insinuation that American expansion in the Philippines necessarily entails an Anglo-Saxon alliance?"

"Anglo-Saxon alliance appears to be a bugaboo to a class of politicians in this country of which Bryan is a representative. Were there any present need of an Anglo-Saxon alliance, the United States and England could well afford to enter upon such alliance without the permission of any other nation on earth, but as the case stands, this country is sufficient unto itself in matters of military power and political influence, and the administration of President McKinley is an American administration, strong enough, when backed up by the country, as I believe it is, to carry out the American policy and protect American interests in the Orient, where our soldiers are valiantly fighting to enforce American authority and uphold the American flag."

RECENT DEATHS.

Dysentery, Typhoid, Wounds and Drowning the Causes Thereof.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.] WASHINGTON, July 17.—The War Department has received the following from Gen. Otis:

STEAMER SIAM CHARTERED.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.] WASHINGTON, July 17.—The War Department has chartered the steamer Siam to carry 300 cavalry horses to Manila.

SHORT OF TRANSPORTS.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.] NEW YORK, July 17.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The Sun's Washington special says the War Department is having considerable difficulty in procuring transportation for horses to be sent to Gen. Otis. According to present accommodations, it will be impossible to send more than 2000 horses between now and November 1. Every effort is being made, however, to procure additional freight vessels of each one has been secured. It is the Siam, with a capacity of 325 horses.

"The War Department is planning to send nearly 4000 horses to the Philippines. Of this number the Tacoma and Leelanaw will take in a few days, 456. This will leave 175 horses of the Fourth Cavalry yet to go. In addition, 3000 more are to be sent to Gen. Otis.

BOUND TO MANILA.

Two Battalions of Nineteenth Infantry Leave from Camp Meade.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.] HARRISBURG (Pa.), July 17.—The movement of the First and Third battalions of the Nineteenth Infantry from Camp Meade to the Philippines, via San Francisco, over the Pennsylvania line, started this morning. RUMOR OF PEACE.

Aguinaldo Said to Have Made Direct Overtures.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.] CHICAGO, July 17.—A special to the Times-Herald from Washington says:

"Important cablegrams have been received at the State Department from the Philippine Commission, and at the War Department from Gen. Otis, concerning a new move in the direction of peace. All that can be learned definitely about them is that direct overtures for peace have been sent to Gen. Otis from Aguinaldo, and some of his principal leaders.

"It was said by a Cabinet officer tonight, that if the promises are fulfilled, the volunteers now being enlisted will not be needed."

MUSTERED OUT TODAY.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.] SAN FRANCISCO, July 17.—The muster-out of the Oregon regiment and the First Volunteer Signal Corps began today. The men will drill every day while in camp, and will appear on dress parade tomorrow for the first time since their return from Manila.

Notwithstanding the lack of overcoats very few of the men are on the sick list.

SHE GETS PRATIQUE.

Dewey's Flagship Olympia Escapes Quarantine at Trieste.

WILL GREET DEWEY.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.] VIENNA, July 17.—It is understood the United States Minister to Austria-Hungary, Addison C. ## SENDING OF TROOPS.

WHAT WAS DONE IN THE EARLY DAYS OF THE WAR.

In May of Last Year a Cablegram from Admiral Dewey Recommended a Force of Only Five Thousand Men—Gen. Miles Advised That Treble That Number Be Sent.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.] WASHINGTON, July 17.—A statement prepared at army headquarters regarding the sending of troops to the Philippines shows that in May, 1898, Gen. Miles recommended to the Secretary of War that Gen. T. M. Anderson be sent to occupy the islands, in command of about five thousand men. This recommendation was approved by the President. May 15 a dispatch was received from Admiral Dewey, saying in part:

"To retain possession and thus control the Philippines would require in my best judgment, well-equipped force of 5000 men, although, United States troops sent by the Peking will be very useful to relieve the Olympia in guarding Cavite. United States troops should make provision for extremely hot, moist climate. Spanish force is estimated 10,000 men. The rebels are reported 30,000."

[Signed] "DEWEY."

May 26, 1898, after seeing the above dispatch from Admiral Dewey, Gen. Miles made the following recommendation:

"The Honorable Secretary of War, Sir: I have the honor to submit the following: In order to make the United States force as strong and effective as possible, with a view to its maintaining our possessions and our flag in the Philippine Islands and at the same time relieve our navy as speedily as possible, I suggest that the command sent there consist of the Fourth and Fifteenth United States Infantry, two squadrons Fourth Cavalry, one battery of heavy artillery from the Seventh and two batteries of light artillery from the Seventh, and in addition 1275 volunteers from California, Colorado, Kansas, Montana, Nebraska, Oregon, Utah, Washington, North Dakota, South Dakota, Idaho, Wyoming, Minnesota, already designated."

"I also recommend that two 12-inch guns, two 10-inch guns with disappearing carriages, and eight mortars, to be dismounted, also two 8-inch guns, now at Benicia Barracks, all to be placed on board ships at San Francisco and sent to Manila, there to be used as a fleet at that place. When this is accomplished, the fleet can be released for more important service. The guns and mortars referred to should be replaced as soon as possible by others sent to San Francisco from the gun foundries and arsenals on the Atlantic Coast."

[Signed] "NELSON A. MILES."

"Major-General Commanding." The troops designated in the above communication numbered 15,452 men, which was over 10,000 more than Admiral Dewey had asked for, but notwithstanding, it was Gen. Miles's opinion that, in view of the admiral's statement that the Spanish force was estimated at 10,000 men, it would be advisable for us to have a preponderating force.

In the mean time Gen. Merritt had been selected to command the expedition for the Philippines, and in a letter to the President, dated May 13, 1898, he submitted an estimate of troops necessary to constitute such an expedition, comprising 14,400 men, of which number 6000 were regulars. May he supplemented this by an estimate for a siege battery and a small ordnance detachment.

Gen. Miles had not seen Gen. Merritt's estimate when he wrote the letter of May 16, given above. This letter was referred to Gen. Merritt for remarks, and was received back with the following endorsement:

"The troops mentioned in the within letter for the expedition of the Philippines."

"Two regiments of regular infantry, two-thirds of a regiment of regular cavalry, and two light batteries is a very small proportion of the forty-two regular regiments in the army when the duty to be done consists of conquering a territory 7000 miles from our base, defended by a regularly-trained and acclimated army of from 10,000 to 25,000 men, and inhabited by 14,000,000 of people, the majority of whom will regard us with the intense hatred born of race and religion."

"Besides, if I am not greatly mistaken, the suggested command is only on paper, as the Fourteenth Infantry is only partially available. My letters of May 13 and 15 give the composition and minimum strength of the regular force I deem necessary."

[Signed] "W. MERRITT."

"Major-General Commanding."

It was then referred to Gen. Miles for further remarks, and was indorsed by him as follows:

"HEADQUARTERS OF THE ARMY."

"WASHINGTON (D. C.) May 18, 1898."

"Respectfully submitted to the Secretary of War: The references to the Spanish troops is believed to be very much exaggerated. No reports have been received thus far that there is anything like the number indicated in the above endorsement, while the population of that territory is probably nearer one-half the number stated. The number of troops already ordered to the Philippine Islands is three times as many as Admiral Dewey called for. The force ordered at this time is not expected to carry on a war to conquer and subvert territory, and the chief object of the within letter was to suggest a means of quickly establishing a strong garrison to command the harbor of Manila and to relieve the United States fleet under Admiral Dewey with the least possible delay. This, in my judgment, is of preeminent prominence."

"The troops mentioned in the within letter as available to send to that department number 15,425. The Tenth Pennsylvania Volunteers ordered today will be approximately 1000 more. These, in my judgment, are all that it would be advisable to send to the Philippine Islands at this time. If it be deemed advisable to send additional regiments, they can be sent from New Orleans or Tampa, but the force now ordered to be sent is, as already indicated, 10,000 more than will be required for the purpose."

"It is, however, in my judgment, of the highest importance that orders should be sent to place the six high-power guns and eight 12-inch mortars on vessels at San Francisco, and possibly Puget Sound, with the least possible delay, they to be sent to the harbor of Manila, and thence as speedily as possible. It may be advisable to send additional guns. These orders should be sent by telegraph, and the engineer and ordnance department should be directed to expedite the work by every possible means."

[Signed] "NELSON A. MILES."

"Major-General Commanding."

It thus appears that there was no controversy regarding the number of troops to be sent, Gen. Miles, in fact, having designated more than Gen. Merritt called for, but a difference of opinion as to the composition of the force, Gen. Merritt desiring to have more regulars than were designated by Gen. Miles.

Certain newspapers have attempted to show that Gen. Miles did not want more than 6000 troops to be sent to the Philippines under Gen. Merritt, but the above official correspondence shows this not to be the fact.

NO NEED TO SUFFER.

OREGON TROOPS CAN HAVE WHAT CLOTHING THEY DESIRE.

Complaint That They Lack Overcoats and are in Danger of Pneumonia at San Francisco. The President Directs That They Be Supplied—Funds at Their Disposal.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.] WASHINGTON, July 17.—President McKinley received a telegram from San Francisco today, saying that the Oregon troops at the Presidio were without overcoats, and were suffering from the weather and in danger of pneumonia. The dispatch stated that, having just returned from a tropical climate, they could not withstand the cold, and that there were plenty of overcoats in the Quartermaster's department.

President McKinley directed that such clothing as was necessary for the comfort of the troops be issued to them. It is stated at the War Department that the matter of clothing for the troops was at their own disposal. Each man is allowed $100 annually for clothing, and if he does not use the whole amount, he draws the residue. The Oregon men can draw upon this clothing credit if they wish, and get overcoats or other things, and it will be charged to their clothing account and taken out of the money paid them when they are mustered out.

GEN. MILES'S CALL.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.] WASHINGTON, July 17.—Maj.-Gen. Miles called on the President for about fifteen minutes this afternoon. The visit, it was said, was occasioned by Gen. Miles's position as Acting Secretary of War. The matters under discussion related merely to routine of the War Department.

NAVAL RECRUITS WANTED.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.] CHICAGO, July 17.—Lieut. B. W. Wells, in command of the naval recruiting station, today received orders to recruit 250 men, mostly landmen, for service in the navy. This is the largest order received since the office was opened.

BANK DEPOSITORS AGITATED.

Perth Amboy Institution Will Soon Reopen Its Doors.

[A. P. EARLY MORNING REPORT.] NEW YORK, July 17.—George M. Valentine, who wrecked the Middlesex County Bank at Perth Amboy, N. J., has retained former Judge Rice as associate counsel with Lawyer Savage. He gave himself up Friday. Valentine said that he would plead guilty and take the consequences of his crime.

The bank's depositors will meet tomorrow, to consider what action is best for them to take. The feeling of the depositors against the bank's officers becomes stronger now facts are brought out. They say that the bank officials must have known Monday, when they found that $7500 was missing, that trouble was ahead and, though Valentine failed to return Tuesday, as he had promised, the bank continued up to Thursday night to receive all deposits offered. Friday morning the bank was closed.

Uriah B. Watson, president of the bank, said last night, concerning the complaints of depositors: "There is no justification for their complaints. We did not take any of their money after we knew that the bank had been robbed. We did not know that until Thursday night, and we have kept closed every since."

The board of managers of the savings institution will meet today or tomorrow and discuss the affairs of the savings bank. Arrangements are all-most completed to reopen the bank. This will occur some day next week. It is expected that there will be a run on it, and preparations have been made to pay out every cent on deposit if this should be needed.

The Perth Amboy City Council will meet tonight to take action. One hundred and twenty-nine thousand dollars of the city's money is tied up in the bank, and the city is left without ready money to pay its bills. Of the $129,000 is from the sale of bonds for the High School.

Rough Rider Murdered.

SALT LAKE (Utah), July 17.—B. C. Morris, formerly of Torrey's Rough Riders, was shot and killed by J. H. Benbrook in a Main-street restaurant tonight. Jealousy on account of some woman was the cause of the trouble. Benbrook was placed under arrest.

MEN CURED FREE.

A most successful remedy has been found for nervous weakness, such as nervous debility and all other results of excesses. It cures any case of the difficulty, never fails to restore to full natural strength and vigor. The doctor who made this wonderful discovery wants to let every man know about it. He will, therefore, send the receipt giving the various ingredients to be used, so that all men at a trifling expense can cure themselves. He sends the receipt free, and all the reader need do is to send his name and address to L. W. Knapp, M.D., 1082 Hull Bldg., Detroit, Mich., requesting the free receipt as reported in this paper. It is a generous offer, and all men ought to be glad to have such an opportunity.

The truth-loving and conscientious Charles Gutmann, well known to theatrical managers and others in New York City, relates his experience with Ripans Tablets as follows: "Having been troubled with rheumatism for the past ten years I was advised by one of my associates to try Ripans Tablets. Not at first fully appreciating his great faith in the article I paid no attention to what was said, but after a couple of months I had no marked relief, but after that the rheumatic pains gradually left me until now I am relieved of every one of those disagreeable sensations that come from rheumatism, and I earnestly assert my belief that any one who is troubled with that fearful and distressing scourge, which may have cost them thousands of dollars in doctors' fees and prescriptions, may have relief and cure at an expense so moderate as not to be worth counting. To those who were troubled as I was I say try Ripans for a month and you will be benefited; try them for three months and you will be cured." Mr. Gutmann had suffered from rheumatism for ten years. His age is twenty-eight years.

WANTED—A case of bad health that R-I-P-A-N-S will not benefit. They banish pain and prolong life. One gives relief. Note the word R-I-P-A-N-S on the package and accept no substitute. ## RICH CUT GLASS.

The value of cut glass is largely dependent upon the depth and brilliancy of the cutting. Inferior grades of cut glass are often sold upon the representation that they are "just as good as Libbey's," or "cut on Libbey's blanks"—any way to get the name of Libbey tacked on some where. This is done for the reason that Libbey's is the standard by which all cut glass is judged. It is absolutely the best. Libbey's cut glass is sold in Los Angeles ONLY by us.

See that the name Libbey is etched on every piece of cut glass you purchase. New patterns to show you.

COMMERCE AND PEACE.

The deliberations of the Peace Conference at The Hague will without doubt have a tendency to promote the settlement of international differences by peaceful methods, in spite of the fact, mentioned by Edward Marshall in his letter printed in THE TIMES of last Sunday, that the disarmament proposition was never taken seriously even by a single delegate to that meeting. Great reforms are not effected in a moment, but work out their consummation by gradual development. The grave and earnest consideration of the American suggestion of a scheme of arbitration is a hopeful indication that progress is being made toward the desired end.

One of the most potent influences in effecting the abolition of war will be the growth of international trade. It may not be complimentary to the race, but nevertheless it is true, that the selfish considerations involved in business relations have in general more to do with the direction of human purposes than the love of peace. In this view of the situation it is encouraging to note the progress that is being made in the development of trade between the United States and Russia, the nation from which the present peace movement emanated. With its vast territory and great population, the czar's domain presents a most inviting field for the sale of the products of American industry and skill. Heretofore, however, our exports to Russia have been remarkably small, amounting, if we mistake not, to only $7,000,000 or $8,000,000 a year. But the recent order for 180,000 tons of steel rails at $23 a ton, placed by the Russian government with the Carnegie Company will do much more than add to the total of our exports the $5,040,000 to which the order amounts. It will advertise not only to "all the Russias" but to all the world, that the United States excels every other nation in the manufacture of steel rails.

It is reported also that some $20,000,000 worth of field artillery and ammunition are to be purchased in this country by Russia. Such an order would, notwithstanding its character, add immensely to the reputation of American manufactures, and without doubt would lead to a very material extension of our trade in other products, not only in Russia but in other nations. With such a start in commercial expansion in that direction as these facts indicate, and taking into account the general indications of a decided increase in our trade with the other nations of the world, there is every reason to believe that the United States, at least, will be too busy with business affairs in the future to engage in warfare, except when impelled to do so by the imperative demands of justice or—as in the case of the war with Spain and that against the Philippines—of strenuous considerations of humanity and the protection of the down-trodden from the heel of tyranny.

When the Tammany tiger and the Texas Hogg meet, then comes the fireworks for Van Wyck.

THE NEW VOLUNTEER REGIMENTS.

In view of the fact that there is a disposition abroad in the land to press for appointment to commissions in the new volunteer regiments, men who have seen no service and are depending upon a powerful pull, politically and otherwise, it is well that the public in general and for civilians who hanker for military commissions in particular, to understand clearly the conditions and restrictions under which these regiments are to be organized.

According to advice given out by the War Department, it is the full purpose to appoint all the field officers of the new commissions from the regular army, or from seasoned volunteer regiments whose officers have seen active service in the field against the enemy, and have distinguished themselves. It is also given out that the rules for the appointment of captains and lieutenants of the line will be almost as rigid, though there will be more latitude given in the matter of selections from veteran volunteer regiments, which will doubtless be permitted to furnish an equitable proportion of the officers of the last-named grades; therefore it is clearly to be seen that no matter how zealous civilians may push themselves or their friends in order to secure commissions, their persistency will prove futile. This is the President's policy and it is the policy of common sense, military sense, justice and equity. No amount of campaigning, log-rolling and leg-pulling in an attempt to break in to the new regiments on the part of men with a vast amount of military ambition, and with a plentiful lack of military training or experience, will amount to anything except annoyance to the military authorities of the government and to disappointment to the applicants. It is manifestly but fair that the men who have shown their capacity to command and who have already seen service in the field, should be given consideration in the contest for commissions rather than those who are as green and raw, speaking from a military standpoint, as would be the men whom they are ambitious to command. No mistake will be made in organizing the new force to be sent to the Philippines if seasoned timber is selected for officering it, and much of the embarrassment that resulted last year from accepting militia officers, hit or miss, for active service on the line of fire or in camps of instruction, will be avoided.

The country is to be congratulated upon this determination of the President and the bureau of war to put none but tried men on guard.

THE NEXT EXPOSITION.

Work is actively progressing on the National Export Exposition which is to be held in Philadelphia, and from the interest that has been taken in the enterprise throughout the country, as well as abroad, it promises to be a decided success. The enterprise is one which will benefit American trade, and will bring our manufacturers into profitable contact with foreign buyers.

The work of the managers of this enterprise has been intelligently directed toward interesting foreigners in American manufactured products. About forty governments will be officially represented at the exposition. What is more important than this is the fact that several hundred commercial organizations, representing the merchants of almost every nation in the world, will send delegations to Philadelphia. It is estimated that not less, and perhaps many more, than ten thousand buyers and delegates from foreign governments and business associations will be in attendance at the exposition and at the congress.

This is an enterprise which California cannot well afford to ignore. This State should be well represented at the coming Philadelphia Exposition. We are just beginning to build up a large trade in our horticultural and other products with Europe, as well as with Asiatic countries, and a first-class exhibit at Philadelphia would give this trade a great impetus.

The wonderful growth of the horseless carriage industry is strikingly shown by a list of American and Canadian automobile companies, recently published in the New York Post, the aggregate capital of which amounts to the enormous sum of $231,900,000.

The Populists insist that their identity in the next campaign must be preserved intact. We shall certainly be glad to do so, for our part, but we draw the line at attempting to preserve the identity of the Democrats, for there isn't enough of them left for a mess.

DEVELOPING WATER.

A writer in the Irrigation Age argues that the general government should provide the money and at once begin work to reclaim and put in use the 550,000,000 acres of arid lands which are now useless, simply from lack of water. He shows that an annual appropriation equal to one-tenth the amount in the River and Harbor Bill would probably be sufficient, and a complete system of fixed reservoirs should be built so as to provide sufficient water at all times. Such a low charge should be made to the settler for the water as would, during a long period of years, simply repay the government for the actual cost of the work already done. The government can well afford to be exceedingly liberal with those actual settlers who, by the aid of the water furnished, shall reclaim this land that is now entirely useless, for the added products will benefit the whole nation far more than the amount of expenditure. Here is a department wherein the general government should, far more than in any other, freely spend its money, for ample and direct returns are sure to come far in excess of the amount spent.

Meantime the individual farmer is not entirely idle, but is beginning to develop water on his own account. We have seen some remarkable instances of this recently in Southern California, and the same is being done on a large scale throughout the Rocky Mountain region where, in many places, water in apparently inexhaustible quantity has been tapped at a depth of not over fifty feet. In Western Kansas and Nebraska alone there are more than two thousand wells. One company, from a space of 150 feet square, is pumping daily 5,000,000 gallons of water with no apparent effect upon the supply, all this coming from a depth of forty feet. We are evidently only on the threshold of water development in this country, and wonderful advances may be expected during the next few years.

A SPECULATIVE LAND DEAL.

A dispatch from Tacoma announces that much excitement prevails in that section over the wholesale land deals of a firm of California irrigation promoters. Their agents have been buying up a large number of settlers' claims, having secured as many as 150 in one week. It appears that under the law by which certain counties of Washington were formed into the Olympic Forestry Reserve, any owner of a claim within the reserve who has secured a patent for his land, may exchange the same for an equal number of acres of government land anywhere in the United States. It is stated that the firm referred to is buying these claims for the purpose of exchanging the land for desert land in Southern California, suitable for irrigation. They expect to get about fifty thousand acres in two Washington counties which land will go into the reserve, while patents representing the claims will be used as scrip in California.

Commissioner Herman in his last report recommended the repeal of the act allowing the exchange of land in the reserve, but Congress was too busy with the Spanish war and did not act. The law should at least be changed so as to limit the relocation of land to the same State or Territory. It is a great wrong to allow this scrip to be located in California, where it is simply used to make speculative flings which cut the heart out of the best propositions left for irrigation development on a large scale. The locators of the scrip will never do anything with the land, but will wait for the government, or some one else, to make it valuable.

An effort should be made in the next Congress to obtain a revocation of this law, if it is not then too late.

The scandal at the Agnews insane asylum is so bestial and disgraceful that every citizen of California is ashamed by the disclosures. There should, from all appearances, be a clean sweep, approximately, of the employees in that institution, for according to the testimony obtained by the State Lunacy Commission, the attendants not compromised in the Cooper-Chaffers case are mixed up in an imbroglio of some sort or another, all of which is detrimental to the public service, contrary to good order, and an injustice to the inmates of the institution.

The Lord loves a cheerful Democrat, or at least He ought to, and therefore He should fairly dote on Senator Morgan of Alabama, who says that there will be no lack of issues in the coming campaign. As the Democracy has been casting about in all directions for an "isho" that will stick, the rank and file of the great unwashed will doubtless be pleased to read the Senator's little list when he gets good and ready to trot it out. Do not be backward about coming forward with your issue catalogue, Senator.

The San Francisco Chronicle of Saturday last says: "The weather wasn't all that could have been desired yesterday, but the fog and the chilly wind probably seemed heavenly to the men who have recently sweltered in Luzon trenches." We have no desire to make invidious allusions, but we must say that its a pity our returning soldiers cannot be landed in Los Angeles where we have California climate which is the real thing.

The Oregon soldier boys appear to have been given a welcome by the people of San Francisco that was in every way magnificent, patriotic and inspiring. There can be nothing too good for the brave men who have been fighting our battles in the Far East both in a display of enthusiasm and in a more substantial way still. It is the duty of the States that have troops returning from the war to organize for assistance to these soldiers, securing employment for them and aiding them, as may be necessary, until they secure such employment. It is not enough to greet these lads with flowers, hurrahs and a square meal. Let it be seen to in California, and Oregon and Montana and Kansas and Colorado and Nebraska, and in all the other States to which volunteers will now be returning for muster-out from time to time, that work is given them in preference to other men, for we owe our soldiers a debt of gratitude that even the utmost solicitude can never repay. Not one of these brave lads should be left to suffer for lack of employment, or, if incapacitated for work, for such other consideration and kindness as each individual case demands. The republic must not be ungrateful.

Kentucky Republicans have nominated a candidate for Governor, even if they didn't make such a horrible racket in the operation as that one which disturbed the peace when the Democrats disclosed to us how trouble is "bred in old Kentucky." The Republicans of the Blue-Grass State are not noisy but they're nice—even if not so all-fired plenty and promiscuous.

The important information is printed in the eastern papers that Russell Sage has contributed $1 toward caring for the cemetery in which his father and mother are buried. Those who have been hinting that Uncle Russell is "near" with his money will be given just one more chance to apologize.

How can the Oregon boys be blamed for desiring to be mustered out in California instead of in their home State? By this method they are not compelled to go back to Oregon where the wet season so resembles the one they just escaped from in the Philippines.

INDIAN EDUCATORS.

THEIR INSTITUTE ATTRACTING NUMEROUS WORKERS.

How the Sons and Daughters of the Red Men are Taught in Government Schools by Paleface.

Problem of "The Soul in Bronze" Engaging the Attention of Those Who Uplift the Dying Tribes.

Superintendent Estelle Reel and Her Corps of Teachers in Session at the State Normal School for a Week.

The problem of "The soul in bronze" is the subject that is engaging the attention of a large number of Indian educators, now in attendance upon the Indian Service Institute, the sessions of which will be held at the Normal School on Hope and Fifth streets, every day from now until the 25th inst.

The institute is under the direct supervision of Miss Estelle Reel, National Superintendent of Indian Schools, with whom the idea of holding the session immediately after the convention of the National Educational Association originated. The success of this plan has already been made evident by the addition of a department of Indian education to the already broad field of educational matters covered by that association.

The general session yesterday morning was presided over by Superintendent Edgar A. Allen of the Albuquerque Indian School. After the invocation, a vocal duet was rendered by Prof. D. H. Morrison and Miss Tertilia Eisenmeyer. The Girls' Mandolin Club from the Ferris Indian School, played a selection with such good interpretation that it called forth a hearty encore. Vocal solos were given by Prof. Morrison, Miss Eisenmeyer and H. H. Barnhart, after which Miss Mary Ledyard of the Los Angeles kindergarten school read a paper on "The Effect of Education Upon the Indian." Miss Ledyard said in substance:

The cost of caring for a civilized Indian is much less than that expended by the government to keep the wild aborigine in subjection. Since education began among the Indians the number of military posts has decreased to about one-seventh of the number previously required.

"The Indian has benefited greatly by the education thus far afforded him. If this was not the case, you suppose that the government appropriations would have increased from $20,000 to $2,631,000 in the past twenty-five years? The Indian not only understands but appreciates Christian truth. In one year 624 Indians, belonging to the Congregational missions in South Dakota, gave $1,856 for the dissemination of the gospel among their own countrymen.

The Indian is a creature of impulse and appetite, and limited by his own native customs. If we change his surroundings and increase his temptations without giving him the restraining influence of the Christian religion, we fall to bring him into the higher realms of life and he goes to destruction.

There are approximately 250,000 Indians still on our reservations, and for the most part they are capable of adopting civilized methods. The child should be given all possible education, while at a stage to easily receive impressions, and for that reason its education should commence in the kindergarten." Miss Estelle Reel, National Superintendent of Indian Schools, presided at the unique and interesting session. The ballads were beautifully sung, but their spirit and melody were more befitting the drawing-room than a theater full of fan-loyers and gaudy gals, such as worship at the shrine.

Two papers were presented at the superintendents' section held in the assembly hall in the afternoon. The first was a discussion of "The Morals and Customs of Indian School Children," and was presented by Superintendent J. C. Hart of Puyallup, Wash. After the reading, the paper was then opened for general discussion, which was participated in by a number of those present.

The second paper was on "The Necessity for Pleasure Resorts for Employees and Pupils." The paper was presented by Superintendent Watson of Menominee, Mich. Maj. Richard H. Pratt of the Carlisle school, led the discussion, giving it as his opinion that large common rooms should be done away with, and that rooms for the accommodation of the pupils should be provided for the Indian pupils. Said he: "Put an Apache from the Colorado reservation in the Territory and a Sioux from Dakota in the same room, and they will be obliged, from the very fact that they cannot speak their own language, to adopt a common one and that will be the English, which is what we wish to teach them."

Superintendent Allen of New Mexico thought that the effort on the part of many superintendents to establish a reputation for themselves by over-crediting the Carlisle school was a very harmful and injurious policy. "It is better to teach one child right than to harm a dozen," was his reply to a query whether or not he did not better to overcrowd the schools than to deny education to some for whom there were no facilities.

After an indiscriminate discussion of the various phases of the foregoing subject, the fifteen Indian girls of the mandolin club rendered a selection, which closed the exercises of the afternoon.

Among the distinguished educators that are in attendance upon the institute is Maj. Richard H. Pratt of the Carlisle Indian School of Pennsylvania, and major of the First United States Cavalry. Superintendent Pratt is a distinguished-looking individual, whose locks have been silvered by the years. After a term of active service in the army, he took up the Indian school work, and has been superintendent of the Carlisle school since its founding twenty years ago.

When asked for his opinion on the future of Indian education, Maj. Pratt expressed himself as very hopeful of the material advancement that would be made in the next few years. "Conceding that the time has about come when we will get what we want," in the Carlisle school we had 900 pupils last year, and on the showing made by the school, we have increased our appropriation of $11,000 to $120,000, and we expect to accommodate 1000 scholars on the next year. We have not as yet got at the kernel of the discussion, but when we do I shall express myself most freely on the subject. The topic now before the Indian educators is, What are we doing at, and do the present methods tend to accomplish that end?"

"The present system is continued, it is a trial system. We are educating the Indians by tribes, and that will not be found sufficient in my estimation to complete their civilization. 'What is the future of the Indian?' was asked. 'The future of the Indian' depends upon amalgamation with the whites. That I think to be the only true solution of the race problem, either for the Indian or the Negro." Levy Levering, a Blackfoot Indian from Idaho, who is in attendance upon the institute, was asked for his opinion of the future of the native Americans. Mr. Levering speaks English fluently, and as a result of nine years of study in the Carlisle school, he has broad ideas on the subjects relating to his race. He is now an instructor in the Fort Hall Indian School in Idaho, which numbers 180 pupils, mostly from the Bannock and Shoshone tribes. He said in reply to question that the future of the Indian like the future of the intelligent Greek must depend largely upon the education given him. Land in severalty is fast taking the place of the reservation, and a strong indication of progress lies in the fact that the Indian is beginning to take an active interest in politics.

The Indian exhibit in parlors 42 and 43 at the Westminister will close this afternoon. All who wish to see the display will be welcome during the morning and early afternoon.

The various departments of Indian school work are allotted rooms in the Normal School building, as follows: Room G, matrons' section—Chairman, Mrs. Fannie R. Hall, Ferris Indian School, California.

Room S, Sloyd, manual and industrial sections—Chairman, William J. Oliver, Albuquerque Indian School, New Mexico.

Room I—Classes in cooking, conducted by Mrs. Emily L. Johnson, Haskell Institute, Lawrence, Kan.

Room O—Classes in sewing and needlework, conducted by Mrs. Bertha Canfield, Phoenix Indian School, Phoenix, Ariz. Note—Tailoring and dress-making systems will be demonstrated.

Room V—Lessons in nursing will be conducted by Mrs. P. C. H. Paul, Illinois Training School for Nurses. Auditorium, physicians' conference—Chairman, Dr. C. C. Wainwright, San Jacinto, Cal.

Miss Estelle Reel, National Superintendent of Indian Schools, expresses herself as delighted with the reception that the people of Los Angeles have accorded to her and those interested in the institute. "We like Los Angeles and the hospitable people of this section, so well," said she, "that we have come to stay, at least until the 25th."

Last evening Miss Reel's parlors at the Westminister were crowded with the friends of the institute, who had been invited to attend an informal reception. The Indian Girls' Mandolin Club furnished the music, and punch and light refreshments were served. The guests amused themselves by inspecting the Indian School exhibit. The Reception Committee consisted of Mrs. R. H. Pratt, Carlisle School, Pa.; Mrs. E. A. Allen, Albuquerque, N. M.; Mrs. W. H. Cochran and Capt. A. C. Tonner, United States Assistant Commissioner of Indian Affairs.

At the morning session, opening at 10 o'clock today, all the various departments, with the exception of the matrons' section, will be held in the Assembly Hall. The general session in the afternoon will be devoted to a round table discussion of two papers. The matrons' section will hold its annual training sessions will be held in rooms bordering the general assembly hall. The evening session, beginning with 7 o'clock, will be devoted to lectures on topics relating to Indian education. The programme for these lectures has not yet been prepared.

The Playhouses.

ORPHEUM. Despite the novelty or other drawing capacity of counter attractions, the grip of vaudeville on the taste of the play-goer is still in evidence on first nights and other nights as well. Last night at the Orpheum there was the usual condition—standing room only—and not any too much of that. The first of the new variety acts was a quartet of comedians, the unique and entire was Mile. Mac Cressy, a contralto singer who has a voice of excellent quality, but not powerful in volume, which was exploited last evening in selections that were fortunate from the vaudeville standpoint. The ballads were beautifully sung, but their spirit and melody were more befitting the drawing-room than a theater full of fan-loyers and gaudy gals, such as worship at the shrine.

The three Gardner brothers, billed as musical comedians, present a juvenile who is a graceful and dainty dancer, who twirls the baton with bewildering dexterity, thus saving the turn from disaster, for as a musical feature there is little to commend it. The comedy shows a number of new feats in juggling done with great skill. His juggling of seven balls is extraordinarily clever.

Billy and Willie Farrell, the cackwalkers and song and dance artists, renewed an acquaintance made here some time ago. They are the genuine sons of the stage, and nowhere else can be seen such a combination of comic antics and stepping with real ability. Their cackwalk is quite the real thing. Will M. Cressy and Blanche Payne are a stormy petrel of the variety stage. Their act is a combination of the cleverest of the East sketch "Grasping an Opportunity," which is a sketch that wears well. Melville and Stetson offer a change in their songs and imitations of the four O'Learys turn flip-flops as heretofore, and the ever-popular biograph shows some new pictures that are of special interest to neweyards. A grand parade at Fairmount Park, Philadelphia; the United States cruiser Raleigh at anchor and two excellent views of the Meadbrook Hotel at Westbury, La. The same bill all the week.

CAPT. FRAZIER'S FUNERAL.

Sincere Mourning for the Death of a Good Man.

Seldom has so many sincere mourners gathered at a funeral in Los Angeles as assembled yesterday for the obsequies of Capt. J. A. Frazier, founder of the Good Samaritan Hospital. The services were held at the First Baptist Church, and the interment was at Roseade. Dr. Frost of San Bernardino repeated the parable of the Good Samaritan, and told how here in Los Angeles a life had been lived which was the glory and the will of the biblical story. The pastor of the church spoke briefly, and the simple services ended with prayer.

Men and women who had been helped by Capt. Frazier in time of dire need were there to pay the last honors to the man whose life has been unselfishly spent in doing good. Those who had made Capt. Frazier a medium through which to give to the poor, confident that what they entrusted to him would be wisely used, were there in great numbers, as also the members of his family, who have loyally stood by him in his work, and who made his home the chief happiness of his life.

Out of the sincere grief which has been felt universally at the loss of a kind and good man, has sprung a determination that his work shall not be allowed to perish with him. Steps are now being taken to meet all the obligations which Capt. Frazier had undertaken, and to carry on his peculiar work—the feeding and clothing of sick and destitute women and children.

THEATER A LA CHINOISE.

EXTREMELY CLEVER PERFORMANCES AT HAZARD'S PAVILION.

Regal Costumes, Sumptuous Accessories, Artistic Pantomime, a Genuine Chinese Band and an Alluring Tea Garden Attract and Interest Big Crowds.

Gorgeous costumes, sumptuous accessories, in an ever-changing series of pictures, that made a feast for the eye; the curious combinations of sound which constitutes Chinese music, and to the untrained western ear means cacophony and nothing more, and men of all ages and both sexes, doing all kinds of things at once—such, in a word, was the first impression gained by the big audiences that crowded Hazard's Pavilion yesterday for both performances in the "Chinese Theater." As time went on, however, and mind, eye and ear became accustomed to the unusual form of entertainment, the interest was aroused, order turned out of chaos, the pantomime became more intelligible, and in thinking it all over between acts, while sipping tea in an elaborately-appointed garden in the annex, something resembling a connected thread of performance just concluded was possible of attainment, with the invaluable aid of Chan Kue Sing, the court interpreter, whose wit and good sense both courteous and clear. For the benefit of those who did not sip tea, here what Chan said, be it written in brief, that the first three acts represented last night the first three had to do entirely with celestial beings, and represented a period of time no less remote than 8000 years ago. The first act was given up entirely to a celebration for the god birthday, amid the greatest pomp and splendor. Act two culminated in the presentation of a son to an ethereal man, who had obtained the highest imperial degree as a student. This man, Tung Wing, had been added to the court by a wealthy man, and afterward educated. Heaven seeing his filial piety and respect for his foster father, rewarded him with a wife, the one of heaven. Separated shortly afterward from this wife, Tung again resumed his studies, and upon obtaining the highest imperial degree started home, when his wife and other heavenly lady beings suddenly appeared and presented him with the aforementioned son. He accepted the gift, and the spring with transports of joy, his wife was returned to the heaven whence she came, and the curtain dropped. The third act revealed the emperor, the king of the heavenly realm, Yuk Wong, amid magnificent ceremonies in which ministers, ambassadors, subjects and representatives of all nations then existing, and including the sun and the moon, prostrated themselves at his throne, turned handsprings and otherwise displayed themselves in harmony with the calling or station they represented. The last two acts were strictly of the earth, earthy. That is, the heavenly realm, the legendary lore, the myth, the past resolved themselves into strictly prosaic historical facts. So, Chun, another poor student, but a human being this time, was installed in the office of prime minister in the fourth act, and in the fifth Gen. Chew Kong Yin, a warrior of great renown, led an army to destroy the rebels which infested the country. He was decoyed by one, surrounded by the hordes, fell ill, and there is no knowing what might have happened, but that his betrothed, Lew Kim Sing, learning of his plight, valiantly mustered another army, successfully fought her way through the enemy's lines, rescued him and married him on the spot in plain sight of the audience.

Now this is but the baldest outline of all that transpired on the stage, because things were happening every minute—and the "music" never stopped. Sometimes there was a lull in the high-keyed music, and the Chinese actor affects when he talks on the stage, but most of it was in pantomime, and it was all so interesting, and so well acted, that the whole Chinese, and much of it was so enchantingly funny that the great audience remained almost intact to the end. The very space between the acts prevented the united and strenuous efforts of the musicians from becoming even disturbing, and after a bit one can discover a certain harmony between what the eye sees and the ear hears. The yee yee (two-string fiddle), the sam yee (three-string ditto), the chee (horn), and the ching ching (between a clarinet and a bazo; the bwot (bambal), and the buffalo-hide drum were all there and doing their trim best, or as they were called, their "triumphs," but the changing rhythm, the fascination of the broken time, proved more enjoyable than otherwise. Which is, of course, the reason why the acting it may be said in all truth and the simple justice, it is the very best of its kind. The company is made up of the stars from the San Francisco and Portland (Or.) theaters, the costumes, appointments and accessories are the best and richest owned on the continent, and nowhere else can be seen even at Chicago, during the World's Fair, has the Chinese theater been seen in such luxurious, such sumptuous, such regardless of expense effect. The solid gold embroidery in rich and rare designs, brocades stiff with silk embroidery, stuffs of oriental texture and color, and in masses in all the costumes, all the draperies, all the royal parasols and banners, and robes, and a

ALL ALONG THE LINE.

This is the open season for doves, and all Coast exchanges tell of the general and enlightening made upon this pretty and appetizing bird. It is hoped that careless marksmen of past seasons will be careful this time and never put a loaded gun out of their hands. It would indeed be a dear bag of game to the family called upon to forfeit the life of a loved one in exchange for it. The foregoing simple rule will effectually bar accidental shooting.

The Times' Santa Monica correspondent writes: "A woman carrying a crucifix and a Madonna knelt in front of the saloon at Ocean and Utah avenues this afternoon and attracted a crowd with her prayers. She said she was praying for money to pay her passage to the Old World." This puts the matter up to the little army of men and women who regulate—or would like to regulate—our moral code, as to why did this woman go to a saloon door for charity; why not to a church door?

In Oakland they are all torn up over the case of a school teacher who is not a citizen of the United States. It is not known how such a test would affect the Los Angeles schools, but it is certain that a vigorous and effective kick would come if it were known that any man, not knowing the country enough to swear allegiance to it, was permitted to teach in its schools. School book publishers and latent sectional prejudice have so altered modern history as to make it a grave danger to intrust its teaching to one who owes allegiance to the government under consideration and not to the United States.

The center of disturbance in the garbage rumpus is shifted from the habit of grief south of us, to the home of glanders and John P. Irish north of us, generally known as Oakland. They have garbage in Oakland and most of her people want to dump it in the open roads, while the authorities would cremate it. The consensus of opinion all over the civilized world is in favor of the authorities. Plooting garbage invites pestilence and ruins all beach resorts, while decomposing garbage on the highway or byway is a menace to public health and a snap for the undertaker.

Manuel Jardine of Alameda perpetuates the claim of that town to the ownership of freaks. Like the man in the story who died and showed while his uninsured house burned, "because the rats would catch him," Jardine, to free his home of flies, exploded a stick of giant powder. Pieces of the house were found every once in a while but the flies are doing business at the old stand. It is about the proper time of year to read that the green-goods artist has milked Alameda, and that a leading citizen has purchased a gold brick. Jardine is wrapped in rags and grief.

"Who is the educated, affable and good-looking gentleman who lives in this house, sir? I am a stranger and would like to know," she said as she pulled a piece of dusty pepper bough out of her collar band, and raked down pine needles off her costly hat. "If you are a stranger, how, pray, do you know the man is an educated gentleman?" "Because his is the first house on the block I have been able to pass without leaving my clothing or loading it with dead matter from trees and shrubbery. I am nearly cross-eyed and wholly cross-tempered from trying to dodge these obstructions. A thoughtful gentleman will never submit ladies to such indignities, but will trim his trees as this man has."

BONNIE BRAE THIEF.

Butcher's Boy Who Robbed Customers' Homes Detected at Last.

A sneakthief who has caused considerable annoyance to residents of the Bonnie Brae tract and who has kept Officer C. L. Foster, the special patrolman of that district, guessing for several weeks, has been run to earth. Foster's suspicions that a butcher's delivery boy, Walter Pierce, was the culprit, have been borne out by detective work that has resulted in the arrest and confession of the youth, who has made a clean breast of his guilt.

Some weeks ago Miss Nelson, a domestic in the employ of Percy R. Wilson, Esq., at No. 1006 Westlake avenue, reported to the police the loss of an opal stickpin, which was mysteriously abstracted from a table drawer in Mr. Wilson's kitchen. On Wednesday of last week, however, a small sum of money, a purse containing a small sum of money, was stolen from the kitchen of the same house. Wilson's coachman, was stolen from the same drawer. A few days later a purse containing $45 disappeared from the kitchen of the same house. Wilson's coachman, was stolen from the same drawer. A few days later a purse containing $45 disappeared from the kitchen of the same house.

Officer Foster learned that Walter Pierce, a nineteen-year-old boy who delivered for the police the loss of the Boston Market, No. 1156 South Olive street, was in the habit of visiting the kitchens of the residences named in the course of his business. The officer also learned that Pierce had in his possession an opal pin like Miss Nelson's. Foster got possession of this pin in a manner unknown to Pierce and took it to Terminal Island last Sunday where Miss Nelson is now staying. She identified the pin as her property.

Returning to the city, Officer Foster arrested Pierce's employer of his supposed peculations. Mr. Oser promised to assist the officer all he could in ascertaining the young man's guilt or innocence. Accordingly Oser yesterday asked the lad to take a drive with him. He took him directly to Foster's house where Pierce, on being catechized, admitted that he had stolen the two purses and the stickpin. He said he had spent about half of the money having a good time at Santa Monica. Twenty dollars he had given to a friend, Barclay Walsh, to take care of for him, and $2 he had loaned to other boys. Twenty dollars and fifty cents of the stolen money has been recovered by Officer Foster.

Pierce is locked up in the City Jail on the charge of petty larceny for which he will be arraigned in the Police Court today. Nelson said that Officer Foster paid his own street car fare while running around hunting for the thief, as the Police Commission has not yet granted him a star which would permit him to ride free on the street cars while in the discharge of his official duties, the same as other officers.

AMBASSADOR WHITE REPLIES.

Says the Peace Conference Will Be Fruitful in Results.

Last Tuesday the board of directors of the National Educational Association adopted a resolution requesting the president of the association to send the following telegram of congratulation to the American delegation to the Peace Conference at The Hague, on behalf of the association:

"Andrew D. White, chairman of American delegation to Peace Conference, The Hague, Holland: The National Educational Association, in convention assembled, tenders American delegation to Peace Conference hearty congratulations on success which has attended their noble effort in behalf of principle of arbitration." The message was sent, and yesterday morning the following response was received:

"THE HAGUE, July 16.
"F. Oram Lytle, president Educational Association, Los Angeles, Cal.: American Peace Commission sends cordial greetings and thanks. Conference will amply justify all reasonable expectations by presenting to the nations a practical scheme for arbitration and mediation, and effective extension of Red Cross and most humane amendments of the laws of war." "You must do your part by educating coming generations to develop and perfect our work."

[Signed] "ANDREW D. WHITE, President."
"FREDERICK W. HOLTZ, Secretary."

Died From Lockjaw.
Harry Harpin, the hackman whose left hand was injured on the Fourth of July by an exploding torpedo, and who was stricken with lockjaw a few days ago as the result of his injuries, died at the County Hospital last night. The remains were removed to Bressee Bros., from where the funeral will probably be held tomorrow under the auspices of the Macabees, of which order deceased was a member. He leaves a widow at No. 717 Clara street.

Receiving Hospital Cases.

T. S. Littlebridge, a three-year-old boy, whose parents live at No. 115 1/2 East Fifth street, fell from a wagon last night and was painfully injured. The little fellow was at Detective Auble's residence, No. 1817 South Hope street, playing with the latter's children in a wagon, when he accidentally fell to the ground, fracturing his right collar bone. Dr. Hagan attended him. George Pond of No. 904 Crocker street went to the hospital yesterday morning and had his left hand dressed. He had been severely bitten by a horse.

University School Funds.

At a special meeting of the Board of Education yesterday the Finance Committee reported favorably on the payment by the city school department of claims against the University school district, the funds of which have been turned into the city school funds. Among the claims are the salaries for teachers for June. It was decided to hold a special meeting at 7:30 o'clock Thursday evening to consider the introduction of cooking and sewing into the city schools.

limited as to the manner in which he was to use the money. Bird had told Griffith that Bird was betraying his trust. Bradish related how, while trying to trace a $500 bill that had been reported to the police as lost, he had learned at a bank that Bird had cashed a check there that very day and received in return a $500 bill corresponding to the one alleged to have been stolen. Witness went at once to Griffith's office to ask Bird to return the bill, but Bird refused. Bird was not in, but Mr. Griffith, who was there, told him Bird was at the Courthouse attending to some business and that he would call on him by telephone and told him Bradish wished to see him, but Bird failed to put in an appearance.

Griffith told him a hard-luck story when he first employed him as his private secretary. He said that he had been told by a man who had lately stipulated salary at the start, but Griffith took him into his confidence and told him he was going to donate the worthless portion of the Los Feliz ranch for a park, which would make the remaining portion available to any boy who wanted it. He would then acquire all the available land in and around Ivanhoe and the Lick tract, subdivide it, bribe the newspapers to publish the news, and then boom the property. From the proceeds thus derived Griffith would found a national bank of which Bird was to have the management. Upon such glittering promises, he said, he went to work for Griffith without any salary except such sums as Griffith could find time to spare him.

Before accepting Griffith's terms, Bird said, he undertook to tell him about the trouble he had had at San Diego, prior to coming to Los Angeles. He said Griffith accepted him, by saying he had investigated the matter to his own satisfaction, and came to the conclusion that Bird was all right.

Bird was determined that if Griffith would not listen to his tale about his former imprisonment for embezzlement, the jury should. Therefore, he told them that in 1931, while working for a lumber company in San Diego, he over-drew his account $675. He had charged this against himself, and when he saw he could not pay it back at once he spoke to the manager about it. He was censured for it, of course, but had no idea of being prosecuted criminally until he was arrested on a charge of embezzlement, to which, he said, he was advised by a lawyer, he pleaded guilty and was sentenced to State's prison for one year. In just sixty-eight days, through the intervention of friends who believed him innocent, he was pardoned out.

After having unburdened himself as to this affair, Bird explained the nature of his duties while in Griffith's employ and his manner of keeping accounts.

During the course of his examination of the witness, Counsel Dillon opened the door wide for the bringing out of facts in cross-examination that the defense would not allow the prosecution to introduce in direct testimony. The defendant, whether intentionally or otherwise, made several admissions that will not help his case any with the jury. At one point, in answer to a question as to what he did with the money that came into his possession, he said he spent $200 a month for his family, and used $125 a month for his personal expenses. It was known that Bird was a high-liver, but the figures quoted are rather beyond the estimates even of his intimates.

Direct examination of the star witness was still in progress when court adjourned at 5 o'clock.

BRIEFS.

Miscellaneous Legal and Other Items

COMPLAINT IN FORECLOSURE. Robert Bruce Williamson yesterday filed a complaint against Seymour J. Milliken, Jennie B. Milliken and others for the foreclosure of a mortgage on personal and real property, given by Mr. and Mrs. Milliken in security of a promissory note for $5000, bearing interest at 11 per cent, per annum from February 25, 1929. The interest was to be paid quarterly, but it was not paid, plaintiff was to have the right to begin foreclosure proceedings at any time after default. It is on account of default of the first of the interest, falling due May 25 last, that the action is brought. The property involved is the Mt. Pleasant Hotel on Boyle Heights, together with its furnishings. J. W. Hellman, T. B. Sage and others are made parties to the suit on account of their having some interest or claim upon the premises.

PETITION FOR GUARDIANSHIP. Millard Fillmore has filed a petition in the Superior Court, applying for the guardianship of Frank Loney, Gladys House, Elliott House, Millard E. Fillmore, Frank A. ## RUN DOWN BY A CAR.

A Bicyclist Forced to Make a Desperate Choice.

Jacob Kaplan, a Van Nuys bellboy, was run down by an electric car on Second street near Center. Place at 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon, knocked from his bicycle, and seriously injured. When Dr. Hagan examined the injuries at the Receiving Hospital it was found that the boy's left arm was broken, his right wrist sprained, a knee badly scraped, and various other wounds inflicted.

The bicyclist explained that he was forced to choose between riding directly in front of a car and running into a horse. He decided that a fender was more to be trusted than the hoofs of a horse, and chose the trolley car.

Police Business.

That the burglar's pathway is not all thorns is proven by the fact that 51 doors were found unfastened by the police sergeants during the month of June. This is recorded in the regular monthly statistical report of the police department, completed yesterday by Police Secretary Cottle. During June there were 356 arrests, and of these cases 277 resulted in convictions, six in holdings to answer, and 67 in dismissals. Six are still pending. Of the 356 arrests, 130 were for intoxication, and 107 for disturbance of the peace. The detectives recovered stolen property of an estimated value of $754. The jail served 3881 meals, and 238 days' work were performed by the chain gang prisoners. The police surgeon attended to 72 cases, and 42 destitute persons were given a night's lodging. During the month $873 was taken in fines by the police courts.

A Sandy Man Disappears.

Tom Brown of Sandy, Ariz., has disappeared, and the police are trying to find his whereabouts, at the instance of W. E. Frost of Kingman, Ariz. Brown is a man of 48, very dark, and he looks somewhat like a Mexican, though he is a German and speaks with a marked German accent. He has a sandy mustache. He is 5 feet 6 inches tall, heavy-set, and has the general appearance of a rancher. He is a married man and has lived at Sandy for six years.

J. E. Perry of Los Angeles is interesting himself in the search for the missing man.

POLICE COURT.

A Juvenile Harness Thief Doesn't Know How It Happened.

Donald McDonald, a gawky lad of 18, was fined $75 yesterday by Justice Morgan for stealing a set of harness valued at $5 from Mrs. Mary Leinan. When asked if he had anything to say in his own defense, the boy carefully examined the spots on his hat and said no. He couldn't explain how he happened to turn aside from the narrow path, so after a little lecture Justice Morgan imposed a heavy fine, which was immediately paid by the boy's brother.

M. Bevan, a stalwart negro, whose trial for begging was on the calendar for yesterday, demanded a jury trial, and refused to be satisfied with less than a full jury. He has already been in jail about a week, and as Justice Morgan declared it would be impossible to hold the trial before August 1, Bevan will spend another fortnight behind stone walls. To all attempts to persuade him that it would be wise to plead guilty, in which case he would probably be given a suspended sentence, the negro has replied that he is not guilty, and that he intends to have a full jury trial. "I didn't beg," he says. "I was asked for something" to eat. "I says that for a year past he has been doing the same thing all over California, and never before has any one interfered with him."

Della Andrews paid a $10 fine for soliciting on the streets, and Hom Young paid $10 as a penalty for having sold a lottery ticket to a policeman. F. O. Bailey handed over $1 for having violated the hitching ordinance.

S. E. Spier was charged by two boys with having on June 29 locked them in his store in order to terrorize them into paying a bill which they alleged was not due. Spier's side of the story is that the boys returned with two rented bicycles in order to smash the rim of the front wheel of one, and that they refused to pay for the damage, alleging that it was not their fault, but that the wheel had simply collapsed because it was made of poor material. A hot dispute ensued. Spier says that the reason he closed the door was not that he wished to imprison the boys, but that he wanted to keep the crowd out. The court decided in his favor, and the misdemeanor charge against him was dismissed.

On July 2 Ah Mow, who is a leader in local Chinese affairs, had Wong Wing arrested on a charge of grand larceny, alleging that his friend had run off with some $100 entrusted to his keeping. Wong Wing was overhauled just as he was boarding a steamer for San Francisco. The case was yesterday dismissed, the troubles of the two Chinamen having been settled out of court.

The following marriage licenses were issued by the County Clerk yesterday: Michael Boyle, a native of Ireland, aged 55, and Annie Elizabeth O'Neill, aged 38; both residents of Los Angeles. Amaro J. Silveira, aged 46, and Anna Rosa, aged 36; both natives of Portugal and residents of Cerritos.

Benjamin F. Korts, a native of California, aged 27, and Anna C. Hagedorn, a native of Staten Island, N. Y., aged 28; both residents of San Francisco.

Harry Nathaniel Edward, a native of New York, aged 26, and Katherine Clair Duffy, a native of Pennsylvania, aged 25; both residents of Los Angeles.

Edward Strathern Strong, a native of New York, aged 28, and Anna L. Mulkey, a native of Oregon, aged 21; both residents of Los Angeles.
